The Mayor of Casterbridge* Thomas Hardy, 2022-05-02 At a country fair near Casterbridge in Wessex Michael Henchard a 21 year old hay trusser argues with his wife Susan Drunk on rum laced furmity he auctions her off along with their baby daughter Elizabeth Jane to Richard Newson a passing sailor for five guineas Sober and remorseful the next day he is too late to locate his family He vows not to touch liquor again for 21 years Believing the auction to be legally binding Susan lives as Newson s wife for 18 years After Newson is lost at sea Susan lacking any means of support decides to seek out Henchard again taking her daughter with her Susan has told Elizabeth Jane little about Henchard and the young woman knows only that he is a relation by marriage Susan discovers that Henchard has become a very successful hay and grain merchant and Mayor of Casterbridge known for his staunch sobriety He has avoided explaining how he lost his wife allowing people to assume he is a widower When the couple are reunited Henchard proposes remarrying Susan after a sham courtship this in his view being the simplest and most discreet way to remedy matters and to prevent Elizabeth Jane learning of their disgrace To do this however he is forced to break off an engagement with a woman named Lucetta Templeman who had nursed him when he was ill

The Mayor of Casterbridge Thomas Hardy, 2016-01-12 Excerpt from the first chapter One evening of late summer before the nineteenth century had reached one third of its span a young man and woman the latter carrying a child were approaching the large village of Weydon Priors in Upper Wessex on foot They were plainly but not ill clad though the thick hoar of dust which had accumulated on their shoes and garments from an obviously long journey lent a disadvantageous shabbiness to their appearance just now The man was of fine figure swarthy and stern in aspect and he showed in profile a facial angle so slightly inclined as to be almost perpendicular He wore a short jacket of brown corduroy newer than the remainder of his suit which was a fustian waistcoat with white horn buttons breeches of the same tanned leggings and a straw hat overlaid with black glazed canvas At his back he carried by a looped strap a rush basket from which protruded at one end the crutch of a hay knife a wimble for hay bonds being also visible in the aperture His measured springless walk was the walk of the skilled countryman as distinct from the desultory shambling of the general labourer while in the turn and plant of each foot there was further a dogged and cynical indifference personal to himself showing its presence even in the regularly interchanging fustian folds now in the left leg now in the right as he paced along
