Place of Performance Chukwuma Okoli, 2020-05-28 This book provides an unprecedented analysis on the place of performance The central theme is that the place of performance is of considerable significance as a connecting factor in international commercial contracts This book challenges and questions the approach of the European legislator for not explicitly giving special significance to the place of performance in determining the applicable law in the absence of choice for commercial contracts It also contains inter alia an analogy to matters of foreign country mandatory rules and the coherence between jurisdiction and choice of law It concludes by proposing a revised Article 4 of Rome I Regulation which could be used as an international solution by legislators judges arbitrators and other stakeholders who wish to reform their choice of law rules

Mechanisms of Innate Neuroprotection Giuseppe Pignataro, 2016-07-27 As clinical trials of pharmacological neuroprotective strategies in stroke have been disappointing attention has turned to the brain's own endogenous strategies for neuroprotection Two endogenous mechanisms have been recently characterized ischemic preconditioning and ischemic postconditioning In the present topic newly characterized mechanisms involved in preconditioning and postconditioning neuroprotection will be discussed The understanding of the mechanisms involved in the neuroprotective pathways induced by preconditioning and postconditioning will be clinically relevant for identifying new druggable target for neurodegenerative disorder therapy Furthermore the importance of these neuroprotective strategies resides in that it might be easily translatable into clinical practice Therefore the data presented here will highlight the capacity of ischemic preconditioning and postconditioning to be of benefit to humans
