

My virtual Child Reflection

1. As our use of the program ends, what pathways does your child appear to be on in terms of physical, cognitive, social, emotional and moral development? Choose three aspects of your child to discuss. To what extent could you have predicted these pathways based on what you knew of your child's earlier development?

---1 point for discussing each of two pathways and 1 point each for providing supporting documentation (4 points)

2. Describe one specific way in which you think your parenting mattered for your child's development, based on evidence from the course regarding the contributions of parents to child development. Describe one specific way in which your child developed that appeared to be influenced by factors outside your control, such as genes, random environmental events or the general influence of contemporary middle-class American culture.

--- 1 point each for describing a parenting and non-parenting influences and 1 point for each example for providing evidence from the course that supports your choice of this influence as important (4 points)

3. Please explain three personal connections you made during this semester long assignment. These might include better understanding of a decision your parents made, impact on how you might parent, how you are parenting, the supports you might provide in your future career. These can be framed using the language "prior to this assignment I believed/understood _____, now I believe _____." This is because _____.

- 2 points each for specific descriptions of your shift in belief and supporting evidence. (6 points)

5. Did this lab provide a good practical application opportunity of the course content? Why or why not? Please provide at least 2 examples.

---2 points for each example. (4 points)

Student Empowerment in Higher Education.

Reflecting on Teaching Practice and Learner Engagement Anjoom A. Mukadam ,2020-05-04 Student Empowerment in Higher Education brings together the accumulated knowledge and experience of many accomplished teachers and students from higher education institutions around the world and has much to offer those who are engaged in higher education as students teachers or support staff The authors offer personal reflections in teaching learning mentoring assessment hands on activities course design and student identities in higher education across the globe supported by academic research and scholarship Readers are provided with a window into tried and tested empowering practices in varying contexts enabling them to see what works and what does not alongside the challenges and possibilities A distinctive feature of this book and its paramount strength is that it explores best practices in student empowerment whilst reflecting on matters of teaching and learning that are familiar to students and teachers alike and also explores practices in a variety of disciplines The intention of these volumes therefore is not only to inform readers about the diverse learning and teaching approaches of the authors but most importantly to facilitate processes of student empowerment and promote reflection on teaching and learning practices In recent decades higher education policy discourse has persistently implied that a university education is delivered to students under the impersonal banner of the student experience Not only does this commodify the diverse individual experiences of students into one marketable product it also creates false barriers and power dynamics between students and their teachers In Student Empowerment in Higher Education the students and lecturers who collaborated to write this important volume have literally blown such misleading notions out of the window I highly recommend each varied and autonomous chapter to learn what really inspires confidence and success in university students Professor Sarah Hayes Professor of Higher Education Policy University of Wolverhampton The two volumes of Student Empowerment in Higher Education offer the reader rich and varied examples and understandings of student empowerment from around the world The authors provide reflective accounts of learning and teaching from diverse perspectives and disciplines which focus on many different areas of practice in higher education It is this variety that will appeal to many readers as the source of ideas and inspiration for numerous possible routes to empowerment With many chapters co authored by students and staff the book models the collective responsibility students and staff have for enhancing student empowerment Dr Catherine Bovill Senior Lecturer in Student Engagement University of Edinburgh Fulbright Scholar Elon University North Carolina USA Visiting Fellow Knowledge Exchange University of Winchester

Virtual Storytelling. Using Virtual Reality Technologies for Storytelling Olivier Balet, Gerard Subsol, Patrice Torquet, 2003-06-30 The story is the richest heritage of human civilizations One can imagine the first stories being told several thousand centuries ago by wise old men huddled around camp fires Since this time the narrative process has been considerably developed and enriched sounds and music have been added to complement the speech while scenery and theatrical sets have been created to enhance the story environment Actors dancers and technicians have replaced the lone storyteller The story is no longer the sole preserve of oral narrative but can be realized in book theatrical dance or movie form Even the audience can extend up to several million individuals And yet in its many forms the story lies at the heart of one of the world's most important industries The advent of the digital era has enhanced and accelerated this evolution image synthesis digital special effects new Human Computer interfaces and the Internet allow one not only to realize more sophisticated narrative forms but also to create new concepts such as video gaming and virtual environments The art of storytelling is becoming evermore complex Virtual reality offers new tools to capture and to interactively modify the imaginary environment in ever more intuitive ways coupled with a maximum sensory feedback In fact virtual reality technologies offer enhanced and exciting production possibilities for the creation and non linear manipulation in real time of almost any story form This has led to the new concept of Virtual Storytelling

Virtual Mentoring for K-12 Literacy Instruction Paula Saine, 2018-10-12 There is no research based text that provides a model for teaching and learning in a virtual environment with literacy learners Therefore this book will focus on preparing challenging students to be successful independent learners for the twenty first century This will involve one where students are constructing their own meaning not only within the traditional brick and mortar environment with the assistance of the classroom teacher but also in an online environment scaffolded by a virtual tutor Today virtual environments are a common alternative space for students in K 12 to engage in meaningful online literacy learning with their tutors Boxie 2004 Hurst 2007 Williams Witte 2007

Virtual Pedophilia Gillian Harkins, 2020-04-10 In Virtual Pedophilia Gillian Harkins traces how by the end of the twentieth century the pedophile as a social outcast evolved into its contemporary appearance as a virtually normal white male The pedophile's alleged racial and gender normativity was treated as an exception to dominant racialized modes of criminal or diagnostic profiling The pedophile was instead profiled as a virtual figure a potential threat made visible only when information was transformed into predictive image The virtual pedophile was everywhere and nowhere slipping through day to day life undetected until people learned how to arm themselves with the right combination of visually predictive information Drawing on television movies and documentaries such as Law and Order SVU To Catch a Predator Mystic River and Capturing the Friedmans Harkins shows how diverse U S audiences have been conscripted and trained to be lay detectives who should always be on the lookout for the pedophile as virtual predator In this way the perceived threat of the pedophile legitimated increased surveillance and ramped up legal strictures that expanded the security apparatus of the carceral state
