Alcoholics Anonymous Comes of Age Bill W., 1957 More than half a century has gone by since A.A.'s historic 1955 convention in St Louis when the founding members passed on to the entire Fellowship the responsibility for the three Legacies of Recovery Unity and Service This book takes A.A. members and interested friends on a quick tour of the Convention traces the history and development of the Three Legacies and looks at A A through the eyes of some early non alcoholics who influenced the Fellowship s history The first part is co founder Bill W s reminiscent sketch of the Convention in which he takes an appreciative look at many of the participants and reflects on events that shaped A A The second part consists of Bill s three Convention talks edited and enlarged on the Legacies of Recovery Unity and Service Here is Bill s story how he drank got sober met Dr Bob and other founding members and how they struggled together to keep A A going with little guidance beyond the lessons of experience Then Bill moves on to describe how the Twelve Traditions developed as A A s protective shield against the human faults that lead alcoholics into trouble drunk or sober And he finishes by laying out the development of A A services culminating in the formation of the General Service Conference to serve as guardian of A A s Traditions and world services In the third part readers will meet five early friends of A A Dr Harry Tiebout the first psychiatrist to openly espouse A A Dr W W Bauer of the American Medical Association Jesuit Father Edward Dowling and Episcopal priest Dr Samuel Shoemaker both of whom helped shape A A s spiritual principles and Benard B Smith attorney and longtime chair of the General Service Board These nonalcoholics tell of their association with A A the part they played in its development and their view of what the future holds

The Artist-Enterprise in the Digital Age Xavier Greffe, 2016-06-29 This book is a monograph of cultural economics of a new concept artist enterprises It explores various dimensions that artists embody i e aesthetic critical messianic and economic ones and screens the multiple challenges faced by the artist enterprises in terms of pricing funding and networking in the Digital Age It shows how these artist enterprises are at the core of the contemporary creative industries Even when they are on their own artists have to demonstrate or manage a variety of skills sign contracts both in the early and later stages of their activities and also maintain relationships and networks that enable them to attain their artistic and economic goals They are no longer simply entrepreneurs managing their own skills but are the enterprises themselves The artist enterprises thus find themselves at the confluence of two dynamics of production artistic and economic artistic because they invent new expressions and meanings and economic because these expressions must be supported by monetary values on the market The artistic dynamic is part of a long process of artistic enhancement and only an artist can say whether it has reached the point of presentation or equilibrium The economic dynamic is dependent on the constant endorsement of artists works by the market to ensure their survival as artist enterprises The tension created by this disparity is further aggravated by another tension the need to overcome a number of risks so that artist enterprises can progress This book will be of special interest to artists managers students professionals and researchers in the fields of the arts creativity economics and development The author is Emeritus Professor at the University Paris I Panth on Sorbonne
