Class Questions Joan Acker, 2006 Class Questions Feminist Answers examines feminist theories of class and intersectionality and proposes a theory of gendered and racialized class processes as deeply embedded in capitalist practices both historically and today Joan Acker argues that large work organizations are primary locations in which gendered and racialized class inequalities are created As neo liberal market practices reorganize work gendered and racialized class inequalities are both reorganized and increasing nationally and globally This book will appeal to readers interested in a feminist discussion of class as a racialized and gendered process intimately tied to the capitalist economic system

The Pursuit of the Sacred John Chitakure, 2016-03-03 Globalization has taken the world by storm and has facilitated the unprecedented migrations of the peoples of this world Whether we like it or not we will meet foreigners in our communities schools universities buses and other public places But when people migrate they take their religions with them If people of different religious traditions are to live side by side amicably interfaith dialogue becomes imperative But for people to be able to speak about their own religions with enlightenment and listen to other people's religious beliefs with respect they must have some basic knowledge of how faiths and believers operate because for some people religion is inseparably intertwined with their economics politics and everyday lives This book clearly and concisely introduces religious studies to the reader It makes a strong case for the quest and study of world religions and explores the challenges controversies and methodological issues in the study of religions It also explores other pertinent religious issues such as beliefs rituals myths sacredness morality the problem of evil and interreligious dialogue Although written from a classroom perspective this book can be useful to any reader who would like to acquire knowledge of religious issues

Industrial World: v. 1: The Failure of the Soviet Experiment Dusan Pokorny,2019-07-04 In the last years of the Soviet Union with remarkable suddenness it became commonplace to observe that what the country needed was a free market private property and integration into the global economy But why aside from the obvious fact that the alternative was failing should this consciousness dawn in our day This book argues that the time has come to reflect on what the epochal events of our era are teaching us about larger questions the relationship between economy and society culture and market Dusan Polorny asks precisely these questions revisiting the ideas of classic and contemporary philosophers in the light of the failure of the Soviet order and the exigencies of post Soviet transformation As Pokorny also points out integration in a post industrial global economy entails profound changes in the domain of property rights a redefinition of the relation between equity and efficiency and a regrounding of national consciousness The present volume examines the implications of these demands for the post Soviet societies another on the European and North American experiments in economic integration is in preparation

Balance Sheet Structures Anthony N Birts,2001-03-20 This book aims to help readers understand the interrelationship between debt and equity in terms of overall value and impact on the cost of capital and also describes the various elements that go to make a balance sheet Interpreting New Testament Narratives Eric J. Douglass,2018-10-02 Narratives are the concrete manifestation of an author s subjectivity They function as that person s voice and should be treated with the same respect that is granted to all voices In Interpreting New Testament Narratives Eric Douglass develops this ethical perspective so that narratives are treated as communication and the author s voice is regarded as a valued perspective Employing a cross disciplinary approach Douglass shows how readers engage narratives as mental simulations creating a temporary possible world that readers enter and experience To recover communication readers locate the events of this world in the culture of the intended audience and translate this meaning into the modern reader s worldview Using a staged reading design this initial reading is followed by readings of critique Crossing Class Boundaries Lenette

Schuijt,2025-07-07 Are you a social climber Chances are high as there are many people who cross class boundaries They embark on a long journey filled with adventures and obstacles confusion and discoveries This brings them into a new world with different social codes yet also one with intellectual freedom and new friends even as they never completely lose their ties to home Social climbers thus navigate two worlds where they feel more or less at home In this engaging book Lenette Schuijt takes you through the journey that transclass individuals undertake and how it shapes them as a person She draws from her own life experiences from dozens of interviews with social climbers about their unique life stories and from literary narratives Through a study of sociological philosophical and psychological analyses of social mobility she found answers to many questions What do social risers need to leave behind and how do they carve out their own place in a different environment How do they ensure that while climbing the social ladder they remain true to themselves How does their contact with their family background change These life stories of social climbers illustrate that class is still very much alive in our society Get acquainted with a fascinating but hidden phenomenon for many 10% of the royalties from this book go to the Big Brother Big Sister Foundation which provides children from low income families with social and cultural resources through a mentoring program

Early Christian Widows and their Social-economic Situation, Support, and Contribution to the Church Rebekah Yurong Zhao, 2025-10-02 In the first consideration of widows in early Christianity Rebekah Yurong Zhao explores the social economic situation of widows their means of support and their contributions to the church Through literary analysis of three different genres of early Christian texts narrative instruction and apologetic texts Zhao argues that historical conclusions can be drawn especially when set against the cultural backgrounds in both the Roman world and ancient Judaism By exploring the situation for widowed women in these cultures and analysing significant texts from the first two centuries of the church including 1 Timothy the Shepherd of Hermas Ignatius Polycarp Tertullian and the Apologists Zhao seeks to answer three key questions what status did widows hold in early Christian society who precisely comprised their support network and what contributions did they make to the church Ultimately this volume examines how support for widows became an iconic practice in early Christianity whilst also dispelling the stereotype of the widow as merely a passive recipient of care

Civic Medicine J. Andrew Mendelsohn, Annemarie Kinzelbach, Ruth Schilling, 2019-07-30 Communities great and small across Europe for eight centuries have contracted with doctors Physicians provided citizen care helped govern and often led in public life Civic Medicine stakes out this timely subject by focusing on its golden age when cities rivaled territorial states in local and global Europe and when civic doctors were central to the rise of shared organized written information about the human and natural world This opens the prospect of a long history of knowledge and action shaped more by community and responsibility than market or state exchange or power

Ans Quest Case Prob West Bus Clarkson, 2003-04 The Lost Lands of Reljae Jeremy Bechen, 2005-10-27 On the world of Akris the race called humans are out of control With their populations growing to horrifying numbers and their disregard for anything save for themselves has caused the other races to become dangerous to any creature Alliances are sparse and trust near extinct In the west there is a disturbance in the Argoth Mountains Here genocide rains rampant over the races of the mountain No neutral or good race goes untouched by the evil storm that is about to roll across the world leaving no land untouched by its wickedness An entity named Darien Albringer leads a party in an attempt to find the lost lands of Reljae and a way to save Akris while the rest of the world defends themselves against an all consuming army of evil As the war wages on some of the gods of old join the scene as do creatures unknown to Akris Deadly warriors of Alanon reach Relkin shores and beings worlds away are recruited as the war threatens to eliminate all life on Akris This would be the first of many worlds which will feel the might of the evil tyrant s touch should it be victorious and loosened upon the universe Commentary on the New Testament
