THE OUTSIDERS

Chapter 1: Characterization

Now that you have met all seven of the Greasers, use your understanding of each character to create a "snapshot" for our graffiti wall.

It is great way to review the seven main characters and to create our own reference Board.

Go back to Chapter 1 to create a snapshot of the Greaser you have selected from the box.

Each snapshot should include:

- The character's name
- Nickname if he has one
- His age
- Likes/dislikes
- Any talents
- Names of people he is related to
- Which other Greaser(s) he is most closely linked to
- Something he says and/or something that is important to him
- A visual representation—use Hinton's descriptions

These snapshots will become the border for our graffiti wall (more about that later) and will be our references for who's who among the Greasers.

New Literacies and Teacher Learning Michele Knobel,Judy Kalman,2016-03-30 New Literacies and Teacher Learning examines the complexities of teacher professional development today in relation to new literacies and digital technologies set within the wider context of strong demands for teachers to be innovative and to improve students learning outcomes Contributors hail from Argentina Australia Canada Finland Mexico Norway and the U S and work in a broad range of situations grade levels activities scales and even national contexts Projects include early year education through to adult literacy education and university contexts describing a range of approaches to taking up new literacies and digital technologies within diverse learning practices While the authors present detailed descriptions of using various digital resources like movie editing software wikis video conferencing Twitter and YouTube they all agree that digital stuff while important is not the central concern. Instead what they foreground in their discussions are theory informed pedagogical orientations, collaborative learning theories, the complexities of teachers' workplaces and young people's interests. Thus a key premise in this collection is that teaching and learning are about deep engagement representing meanings in a range of ways. These include acknowledging relationships and knowledge, thinking critically about events, phenomena and processes and participating in valued social and cultural activities. The book shows how this kind of learning doesn't simply occur in a one off session but takes time, commitment and multiple opportunities to interact with others to explore, play, make mistakes and get it right.

Adolescent Literacy in the Era of the Common Core Jacy Ippolito, Joshua Fahey Lawrence, Colleen Zaller, 2013. Adolescent Literacy in the Era of the Common Core provides school leaders, teachers and others with strategies and best practices for advancing adolescent literacy in the classroom. Exceptionally clear and accessible, the book addresses a full range of topics in this vitally important field including disciplinary literacy, vocabulary instruction, classroom discussion, motivation and engagement related to digital literacy, the use of multiple texts and writing to learn. This book presents usable knowledge of the highest order and of immediate value to school leaders and teachers. It will be required reading for all educators concerned with promoting and furthering adolescent literacy today. This volume is packed with new and useful ideas for educators working to promote adolescent literacy. Six essential and critical domains are discussed, providing instructional examples and frameworks for classroom use. This is the right book at the right time, describing instruction aligned with the Common Core State Standards. Rita M. Bean, professor emerita, University of Pittsburgh. A must read for middle and high school content teachers, instructional literacy coaches and administrators. This book quickly brings newcomers up to date and both affirms and builds upon what others already know. Teachers and administrators alike will leave the book fully prepared for implementation of the Common Core State Standards and new technologies. This is a resource that won't just sit on a shelf. Nancy L. Shanklin, literacy language and culturally responsive teaching program, School of Education and Human Development, University of Colorado Denver. The editors present research and practice that address six essential domains of adolescent literacy instruction. Readers will find instructional strategies that they can do now as well as guiding principles for ongoing professional development. Pamela A. Mason, director, Language and Literacy Program and Jeanne Chall Reading Lab, Harvard Graduate School of Education. Jacy Ippolito is an assistant professor in the School of Education at Salem State University.
