Festivals as Reparative Gender Politics Zorica Siročić, 2023-08-18 What explains the popularity and widespread appeal of numerous post Yugoslav feminist and LGBTQ festivals in the last decade This book argues that the millennial generation expresses reparative politics as a distinct type of activism through festivals Reparative political acting as identified here characteristically relies on playfulness and creativity interpretative gender dissent acceptance of organizational and programmatic messiness and hybridity belonging and positive affect The reparative politics is vital in a context that is marked by an individual and collective trauma of heteropatriarchy violent breakdown of the common state and post transitional economic precarity The book uses excerpts from programs interviews and observations collected through the multi sited ethnographic research Siro i s focus on contemporary activism in Southeastern Europe challenges the narrow geopolitical understanding of the recent feminist politics and refutes the common assumptions of a passive millennial generation Yet the book s relevance surpasses its area of study as it argues against the popular deriding of activist expressions as the merely cultural or merely aesthetic engagement In contrast the book claims that such activities urge a redefined understanding of political agency Festivals as Reparative Politics demonstrates that contemporary feminist festivals represent a distinct reformulation of contentious politics of gender whose constitutive principles can be exemplary for other types of political engagements

Gender and the Politics of Gradual Change Silke Staab, 2017-01-20 This book explores recent social policy reforms and innovations in Chile Focusing on four major reform episodes health pensions childcare and maternity leave Silke Staab unveils the complex interplay of factors that have shaped the successes and failures of actors pursuing positive gender change in social policy She shows that even in highly constrained settings positive gender change is possible but that its scope and quality are bound to vary in response to sector specific institutional constraints and opportunities      Religion, Gender, and Populism in the Mediterranean Alberta Giorgi, Júlia Garraio, Teresa Toldy, 2023-11-22 This book offers a systematic and comparative analysis of the intersections of religion and gender in times of populism across the EU Mediterranean The chapters explore tensions and issues related to religion and gender in nations including Portugal Italy Croatia Bosnia Herzegovina Serbia Greece Turkey and Israel Palestine Shifting attention from the European Union to the Mediterranean area allows the inclusion of countries whose history is significantly interwoven taking into account the legacies of colonialism the effects of post colonialism and the role of the EU in relation to gender related issues in particular The volume investigates not only country specific cases but highlights similarities and differences in the region and aims to understand how the interconnections influence the issues at stake It draws together countries with non Christian majoritarian religions with different political regimes and where feminism and women s movements have different shapes histories and relationships with religion The book will appeal to scholars interested in the entanglements of gender religion and populism from a range of disciplines including anthropology sociology political science religious studies and gender studies      Gender and the Economic Crisis in Europe Johanna Kantola, Emanuela Lombardo, 2017-02-22 This book is a unique exploration into the gendered politics of the economic crisis in Europe It focuses firstly on the changes in the political and economic decision making institutions and processes of the EU and their consequences for gender equality policy Secondly the book analyses the gendered impacts of austerity politics on member states gender equality policies institutions regimes and debates Finally it addresses feminist and intersectional struggles and resistances against neoliberal conservative and racist politics across Europe The authors consider the gendered politics of the economic crisis from a variety of feminist approaches shedding new light on the concept of the crisis and on questions of politics institutions and intersectionality The case studies included refer to different parts of Europe from North to South and from East to West capturing the multifaceted gendered impacts of the crisis The volume will be of interest to students and scholars of politics international relations gender studies economics law sociology social policy and European studies      Encyclopedia of Asian Politics Alexander C. Tan, Dennis Quilala, 2023-12-11 This state of the art Encyclopedia provides a detailed snapshot study of politics in Asia Curated by two internationally recognized scholars entries offer key insights and critical reference points in order to navigate the vastness diversity and dynamism of Asian politics

Gender and the Expansion of International Society in the Middle East Khalid F. Al-Khater, 2017-11-28 Gender politics is the most visible marker of conflict over identity within the Middle East It also lies at the core of cultural conflicts in the relationship between the Muslim world and the West Why is gender such a divisive issue between the West and the Middle East A theoretical framework and four case studies are employed to answer this question The theoretical framework discusses the main approaches in international relations that perpetuate the liberal world order in different ways In all approaches the gender project serves as a means of discourse and an instrument to justify expand or consolidate the liberal order Part 2 presents the case studies This dissertation argues that gender politics should be understood in the context of sociohistorical changes and the ongoing dialectic process between the liberal project and the expression of the ummah rather than through simplified mainstream perceptions of development and the need for liberating the oppressed Middle Eastern women The three main arguments are as follows First gender discourse is a top down project Second gender is embedded within layers of imperialism Third gender must be understood within the dynamics of the dialectic process between the ummah and the liberal order

Sex, Gender and the Conservative Party S. Childs,P. Webb,2011-11-15 As leader of the Conservative party David Cameron inherited a multi faceted gender problem only 17 women MPs an unhappy women s organization electorally uncompetitive policies for women and a party which was seemingly unattractive to women voters This book is an account of the feminization of the party since 2005

The Gender Politics of Domestic Violence Andrea Krizsán,Conny Roggeband,2017-11-22 What are the factors that shape domestic violence policy change and how are variable gendered meanings produced in these policies How and when can feminists influence policy making What conditions and policy mechanisms lead to progressive change and which ones block it or lead to reversal The Gender Politics of Domestic Violence analyzes the emergence of gender equality sensitive domestic violence policy reforms in Central and Eastern Europe CEE Tracing policy developments in Eastern Europe from the beginning of 2000s when domestic violence first emerged on policy agendas until 2015 Andrea Krizs n and Conny Roggeband look into the contestation that takes place between women s movements states and actors opposing gender equality to explain the differences in gender equality sensitive policy outputs across the region They point to regionally specific patterns of feminist engagement with the state in which coalition building between women s organizations and establishing alliances with different state actors were critical for achieving gendered policy progress In addition they demonstrate how discursive contexts shaped by democratization frames and opposition to gender equality led to differences in the politicization of gender equality making gender friendly reforms more feasible in some countries than others

Gender Mainstreaming in Counter-Terrorism Policy Jessica White,2022-11-24 This book analyzes policy and programming challenges for gender mainstreaming in counter terrorism with examples from comparative case studies of countering violent extremism programming Interest in the issue of gender in security policy and programming has grown over the past several years often with increasing pressure at the international and national levels to ensure commitment to inclusion of women or a gender lens This book provides in depth investigation of how gender can be effectively understood and included in the security process Firstly it adds a timely and effective contribution to the academic conversations around gender in security and how counter terrorism programming can be implemented with human security goals Secondly it offers recommendations for policy makers and practitioners seeking to improve the effectiveness of countering violent extremism program design implementation and evaluation A gender analysis framework is built across the chapters drawing from various feminist analytical perspectives used in International Relations theory The learning from this comparative gender analysis is encapsulated in the last chapter through some recommendations to help move counter terrorism policy toward more transformative gender mainstreaming strategies This book will be of much interest to students of counter terrorism studies countering violent extremism gender studies security studies and International Relations
