The New Frontier and the Great Society, 1960-1968

Chapter 1: The New Frontier

Section 1: The New Frontier

Read the following passage and answer the questions that follow.

1. The Election of 1960

1. The election of 1960 was the first time that both parties used television to reach voters. The election was very close, with Kennedy winning by a narrow margin. Kennedy's victory was due to his charismatic personality and his ability to connect with voters on a personal level.
2. Kennedy's victory was also due to his campaign strategy, which focused on attacking Eisenhower's administration and its policies.

2. Kennedy's Policies

3. Kennedy's policies were aimed at promoting economic growth and social progress. He believed in the power of government to create jobs and improve the lives of its citizens.
4. Kennedy's policies were also aimed at promoting international peace and stability. He believed in the importance of maintaining a balance of power between the United States and the Soviet Union.
5. Kennedy's policies were also aimed at promoting civil rights and social justice. He believed in the importance of treating all people equally, regardless of their race or ethnicity.

3. The Great Society

6. The Great Society was a series of programs and policies that were designed to eliminate poverty and improve the lives of all Americans. It was one of the most significant achievements of the Kennedy administration.
7. The Great Society was also aimed at promoting international peace and stability. It was designed to help other countries develop and improve their economies.
8. The Great Society was also aimed at promoting civil rights and social justice. It was designed to ensure that all people had access to the same opportunities and resources.
