The New Pet Shrinking Fetish English Edition:

The New Religious Intolerance Martha C. Nussbaum, 2012-04-24 What impulse prompted some newspapers to attribute the murder of 77 Norwegians to Islamic extremists until it became evident that a right wing Norwegian terrorist was the perpetrator Why did Switzerland a country of four minarets vote to ban those structures How did a proposed Muslim cultural center in lower Manhattan ignite a fevered political debate across the United States In The New Religious Intolerance Martha C Nussbaum surveys such developments and identifies the fear behind these reactions Drawing inspiration from philosophy history and literature she suggests a route past this limiting response and toward a more equitable imaginative and free society Fear Nussbaum writes is more narcissistic than other emotions Legitimate anxieties become distorted and displaced driving laws and policies biased against those different from us Overcoming intolerance requires consistent application of universal principles of respect for conscience Just as important it requires greater understanding Nussbaum challenges us to embrace freedom of religious observance for all extending to others what we demand for ourselves She encourages us to expand our capacity for empathetic imagination by cultivating our curiosity seeking friendship across religious lines and establishing a consistent ethic of decency and civility With this greater understanding and respect Nussbaum argues we can rise above the politics of fear and toward a more open and inclusive future

Nature and the Numinous in Mythopoeic Fantasy Literature Chris Brawley, 2014-07-14 This book makes connections between mythopoeic fantasy works that engage the numinous and the critical apparatuses of ecocriticism and posthumanism Drawing from the ideas of Rudolf Otto in The Idea of the Holy mythopoeic fantasy is a means of subverting normative modes of perception to both encounter the numinous and to challenge the perceptions of the natural world Beginning with S T Coleridge's theories of the imagination as embodied in The Rime of the Ancient Mariner the book moves on to explore standard mythopoeic fantasists such as George MacDonald C S Lewis and J R R Tolkien Taking a step outside these men particularly influenced by Christianity the concluding chapters discuss Algernon Blackwood and Ursula Le Guin whose works evoke the numinous without a specifically Christian worldview
