The Golden Torc Julian May,1982-01-27 Second in the series that portrays one of the best thought out futures ever encountered in science fiction from the author of The Many Colored Land Joe Haldeman Six million years in the past a proto Europe is inhabited by two extraterrestrial races the chivalric Tanu and the dwarfish forest dwelling Firvulag both of which possess far reaching psychic powers But now time traveling humans from a future society have become involved in the age old struggle between the two One group of captured humans is brought to Muriah the stately capital of the Tanu kingdom Among them is Elizabeth Orme who was once in her own world a Grand Master Metapsychic In spite of Tanu harassment she begins to recover her lost powers The other human group which has managed to overcome its Tanu guards and escape into the northern forests includes Chief Burke a Native American and Felice Uindry an athlete gifted with certain psychic powers of her own This group with the ambiguous aid of the Firvulag determines to launch an attack against the very heart of Tanu dominance At the end of the Grand Combat tournament between Tanu and Firvulag comes the astonishing climax to this astonishing novel Praise for the Saga of Pliocene Exile Enchanting and engrossing I was captivated Fritz Leiber Julian May has woven a many colored tapestry of exotic adventure Roger Zelazny Action oriented and vivid Vonda McIntyre An amazing journey from the distant future to the distant past High adventure SFReviews.net Complete Critical Assembly David Langford,2002-10-01 This new collection of essays commissioned from a range of scholars across the world takes as its theme the reception of Rome's greatest poet in a time of profound cultural change Amid the rise of Christianity the changing status of the city of Rome and the emergence of new governing classes Vergil remained a bedrock of Roman education and identity This volume considers the different ways in which Vergil was read understood and appropriated by poets commentators Church fathers orators and historians The introduction outlines the cultural and historical contexts Twelve chapters dedicated to individual writers or genres and the contributors make use of a wide range of approaches from contemporary reception theory An epilogue concludes the volume The Year's Best Science Fiction: Seventeenth Annual Collection Gardner Dozois,2000-08-12 In science fiction's early days stories often looked past 1984 to the year 2000 as the far unknowable future Here now on the brink of the twenty first century the future remains as distant and as unknowable as ever and science fiction stories continue to explore it with delightful results Collected in this anthology are such imaginative gems as The Wedding Album by David Marusek In a high tech future the line between reality and simulation has grown thin and it s often hard to tell who s on what side Everywhere by Geoff Ryman Do the people who live in utopian conditions ever recognize them as such Hatching the Phoenix by Frederik Pohl One of science fiction s Grand Masters returns with a star crossing tale of the Heechee the enigmatic vanished aliens whose discarded technology guides mankind through the future A Hero of the Empire by Robert Silverberg Showing that the past is as much a province of the imagination as the future this novelette returns to an alternate history when the Roman Empire never fell to show us just how the course of history can be altered The twenty seven stories in this collection imaginatively take us to nearby planets and distant futures into the past and into universes no larger than a grain of sand Included here are the works of masters of the form and of bright new talents Supplementing the stories are the editor s insightful summation of the year s events and a lengthy list of honorable mentions making this book a valuable resource in addition to serving as the single best place in the universe to find stories that stir the imagination and the heart

Conqueror's Moon Julian May,2005-03-29 From the author of The Many Colored Land comes the saga of a land beyond the horizon where the quest for power is eternal where magic and mystery are feared above all and one man sought to reign On a remote island far in the Boreal Sea four kingdoms have struggled against one another since time out of mind Most mysterious is the marshland kingdom of Moss feared by the others and ruled by the Sorcerers Soon all will be put in peril s way In recent years three of the kingdoms have suffered fearsome volcanic eruptions that choke crops famine among people and an ailing leader on his deathbed Only Moss poverty stricken and desolate at the best of times seems untroubled But Prince Conrig of Cathra who waits patiently as his father the king wastes slowly away is in league with his lover the seductive sorceress Princess Ullanoth of Moss And if their secret alliance succeeds in its goal the warring kingdoms of High Blenholme will be united once and for all under the iron hand of one supreme rule
