The Owner S Son The Vineyard 2:

Jesus in a World of Colliding Empires, Volume Two: Mark 8:30-16:8 and Implications Mark J. Keown, 2018-03-16 At the time of Christ world politics was an ebb and flow of colliding empires and forces The world knew only dynastic succession and rule by force Israel was swept up in this world Her expectations of deliverance while diverse had in common the anticipation of violent liberation by an alliance of God the expected one Theo and Israel s forces Her vision included the subjugation of the world to Yahweh Any messianic claimant would be expected to fulfill this hope Mark s story of Jesus must be read against such expectations of military power Mark knows that Jesus plan of salvation differed radically from this Rather than liberation through revolution it involved deliverance through humble loving service and cross bearing However the disciples follow Jesus but do not understand Jesus purpose They constantly expect war So the Gospel is then read from Mark s full understanding and the disciples flawed perspective In this first volume of Jesus in a World of Colliding Empires Keown backgrounds Mark and the political situations of the world at the time He then unpacks Mark 1 1 8 29 as Jesus seeks to show the disciples he is Messiah while drawing out the deep irony of their incomprehension

Sayings Parallels John Dominic Crossan, 2008-03-01 This book is concerned with the words rather than the deeds of Jesus But even the words are limited to sayings that is units which could or did exist in the tradition as isolated segments passed on in different contexts This leaves out for example those short terse commands or comments of Jesus uttered during cures or exorcisms and inextricably linked to some such situation Sayings Parallels is a workbook for the study of the Jesus tradition Its existence and structure derives from one basic postulate the exact same unit often appears in different sources genres and versions within the Jesus tradition This is what is meant by parallel sayings And this phenomenon and its explanation will have implications even for those cases where there are no parallels and the unit appears in only one instance That basic postulate is taken as a factual statement although of course its implication and interpretation its importance and significance are open to very different visions But granted that preliminary postulate an attempt was made in this book to present the data as neutrally as possible The work is to facilitate discussion of that factual diversity rather than to promote a set understanding of its presence from the Introduction

Kloppenborg,2006 John S Kloppenborg gives a detailed analysis of one of the most difficult of Jesus parables the parable of the Tenants Mark 12 1 12 Gospel of Thomas 65 He examines the ways in which Christians have typically read and mis read the parable and places the parable firmly in the context of the practices of ancient viticulture The author models a new approach to the interpretation of the parables of Jesus First he critically engages the history of interpretation of the text inquiring into the ideological interests that the parable has engaged during the history of its use in Christian churches and in political discourse Second he reconstructs the social world in which the parable was first told in particular the economic social and legal aspects of ancient viticulture He demonstrates that the parable of the Tenants has mostly been interpreted from the standpoint of those who wield social and political power a strange irony considering the social status of the Jesus of history and the literary uses of the parable All of the features common to the parable as it is told by Mark and the Gospel of Thomas make it a perfectly realistic story It is only Mark s editing of the story that takes it beyond the realistic idiom characteristic of Jesus other parables The book concludes with a dossier of 58 papyrus documents relating to various aspects of viticulture and agrarian conflict It was awarded the 2007 Francis W Beare Book Award by the Canadian Society of Biblical Studies
