The Merman's Children Poul Anderson, 1979 The Aesthetics of the Undersea Margaret Cohen, Killian Quigley, 2018-12-20 Among global environments the undersea is unique in the challenges it poses and the opportunities it affords for sensation perception inquiry and fantasy The Aesthetics of the Undersea draws case studies in such potencies from the subaqueous imaginings of Western culture and from the undersea realities that have inspired them The chapters explore aesthetic engagements with underwater worlds and sustain a concern with submarine sense in several meanings of that word when submerged faculties and fantasies transform confronting human subjects with their limitations while enlarging the apparent scope of possibility and invention Terrestrially established categories and contours shift metamorphose or fail altogether to apply As ocean health acquires an increasing share of the global environmental imaginary the histories of submarine sense manifest ever greater importance and offer resources for documentation as well as creativity The chapters deal with the sensory material and formal provocations of the underwater environment and consider the consequences of such provocations for aesthetic and epistemological paradigms Contributors who hail from the United States United Kingdom and Australia include scholars of literature art new media music and history Cases studies range from baroque and rococo fantasies to the gothic surrealism modernism and contemporary installation art By juxtaposing early modern and Enlightenment contexts with matters of more recent and indeed contemporary importance The Aesthetics of the Undersea establishes crucial relations among temporally remote entities which will resonate across the environmental humanities The Children's Hour: Poems and rhymes, 1907 The Children's Hour Eva March Tappan, 1907 Ballads of the North, Medieval to Modern Sandra Ballif Straubhaar, Richard Firth Green, 2019-04-15 This volume is intended as a belated but heartfelt thank you and Gedenkschrift to the late Larry Syndergaard 1936 2015 long time professor of English at Western Michigan University and Fellow of the Kommission f r Volksdichtung International Ballad Commission Larry s contributions down the decades to ballad studies particularly Scandinavian and Anglophone included dozens of papers and articles as well as his supremely useful book English Translations of the Scandinavian Medieval Ballads As David Atkinson and Thomas A McKean of the Kommission have written May 2015 Larry was a sound scholar with a penetrating mind which he used to support encourage and befriend others rather than show off his own knowledge He will be remembered for his contributions to international balladry especially for providing a bridge between the English and Scandinavian language ballads Larry s particular fascination with the vernacular ballads of the northern medieval world are reflected in this collection topics here range from plot elements such as demonic whales otherworldly antagonists and mer people to thematic issues of genre religion and sexual mores As a tribute to the global influence of Larry s scholarship and the broad academic interest in medieval ballads the essays in this volume were contributed by twelve international scholars of narrative song based in Europe North America and Australia Internet Children's Television Series, 1997-2015 Vincent

Terrace,2016-08-22 Created around the world and available only on the web internet television series are independently produced mostly low budget shows that often feature talented but unknown performers Typically financed through crowd funding they are filmed with borrowed equipment and volunteer casts and crews and viewers find them through word of mouth or by chance The fifth in a series focusing on the largely undocumented world of internet TV this book covers 573 children s series created for viewers 3 to 14 The genre includes a broad range of cartoons CGI live action comedies and puppetry Alphabetical entries provide websites dates casts credits episode lists and storylines Maxwell Anderson and the Marriage Crisis Fonzie D. Geary II,2022-10-23 This book focuses on the re evaluation of four Maxwell Anderson plays within the context of the emergence of the New Woman and the perception of a marriage crisis in the United States during the 1920s The four plays under consideration are White Desert 1923 Sea Wife 1924 Saturday s Children 1927 and Gypsy 1929 These plays are largely forgotten and even when the titles appear in Anderson scholarship coverage has tended to be cursory and dismissive This work represents a fresh approach and re assessment of an American playwright who bore a significant impact on the drama of his time serving not only to place Anderson s work more effectively within the context of American theatre during the 1920s but also to bridge the gap between his work and the marriage related plays of the late twentieth and early twenty first centuries

The Complete Works of Richard Burton Richard Francis Burton,2022-12-10 The Complete Works of Richard Burton presents a remarkable collection that encapsulates the multifaceted genius of one of the Victorian era s most intriguing figures Spanning travel writing poetry translation and ethnography Burton s literary style is characterized by vivid prose keen observation and an unflinching exploration of diverse cultures The anthology situates Burton within the context of 19th century colonial discourse revealing his complex relationship with the then emerging field of anthropology and the intricacies of cultural representation His narratives are often laced with personal anecdotes transporting readers to distant lands while his pioneering translations most notably of The Arabian Nights showcase his linguistic prowess and deep appreciation for the literatures of the East Richard Francis Burton was a British explorer soldier and linguist whose life was marked by extensive travels across Africa the Middle East and beyond His insatiable curiosity and audacity often pushed social boundaries leading him to delve into the unknown which in turn shaped his literary output His experiences of cultural immersion and his often controversial perspectives on colonialism provide a rich backdrop for the themes explored in this comprehensive collection Readers seeking an expansive look into the mind of a true Renaissance man and an exploration of the complex dynamics of culture and identity will find The Complete Works of Richard Burton indispensable His writings invite contemplation and challenge readers to engage with the rich tapestry of human experience through a lens that is as enlightening as it is provocative
