Changes in Attitudes to Immigrants in Britain, 1841-1921 Ben Braber, 2020-11-25

This book reviews changes in attitudes to immigrants in Britain and the language that was used to put these feelings into words between 1841 and 1921 Using a historical and linguistic method for an analysis of so far for this purpose relatively unused primary sources it offers novel findings It has found that changes in the meaning and use of the word alien in Britain coincided during the period between 1841 and 1921 with the expression of changing attitudes to immigrants in this country and the modification of the British variant of the English language When people in Britain in these years used the term an alien they meant most likely a foreigner stranger refugee or immigrant In 1841 an alien denoted a foreigner or a stranger notably a person residing or working in a country who did not have the nationality or citizenship of that country However by 1921 an alien mainly signified an immigrant in Britain a term which as this book shows had in the course of the years since 1841 acquired very negative connotations
