The Broadview Anthology of Expository Prose - Third Canadian Edition
 Laura Buzzard, Don LePan, Nora Ruddock, Alexandria Stuart, 2017-08-08 The third Canadian edition of this anthology has been substantially revised and updated for a contemporary audience a selection of classic essays from earlier eras has been retained but the emphasis is very much on twenty first century expository writing There is also a focus on issues of great importance in twenty first century Canada such as climate change the Truth and Reconciliation Commission the Jian Ghomeshi trial Facebook police discrimination trans rights and postsecondary education in the humanities Works of different lengths and levels of difficulty are represented as are narrative descriptive and persuasive essays and new to this edition lyric essays For the new edition there are also considerably more short pieces than ever before a number of op ed pieces are included as are pieces from blogs and from online news sources The representation of academic writing from several disciplines has been increased and in some cases the anthology also includes news reports presenting the results of academic research to a general audience Also new to this edition are essays from a wide range of the most celebrated prose writers of the modern era from Susan Sontag Eula Biss and Michel Foucault to Anne Carson and Ta Nehisi Coates The anthology also offers increased diversity of representation including for example a larger proportion of First Nations writers and women writers than previous Canadian editions Unobtrusive explanatory notes appear at the bottom of the page and each selection is preceded by a headnote that provides students with information regarding the context in which the piece was written Each reading is also followed by questions for discussion A unique feature is the inclusion of a set of additional notes on the anthology's companion website notes designed to be of particular help to EAL students and or students who have little familiarity with Canadian culture The anthology is accompanied by two companion websites The student website features additional readings and interactive writing exercises as well as the additional notes The instructor website provides additional discussion questions and for a number of the anthology selections background information that may be of interest

Enacting Catholic Social Tradition Sedmak, Clemens, 2022-03-23 Emphasizes that Catholic Social Tradition stems not from arbitrary laws laid down by Church leaders but from moral guidance inspired by Scripture Car Safety Wars Michael R. Lemov, 2015-03-19 Car Safety Wars is a gripping history of the hundred year struggle to improve the safety of American automobiles and save lives on the highways Described as the equivalent of war by the Supreme Court the battle involved the automobile industry unsung and long forgotten safety heroes at least six US Presidents a reluctant Congress new auto technologies and most of all the mindset of the American public would they demand and be willing to pay for safer cars The Car Safety Wars were at first won by consumers and safety advocates The major victory was the enactment in 1966 of a ground breaking federal safety law The safety act was pushed through Congress over the bitter objections of car manufacturers by a major scandal involving General Motors its private detectives Ralph Nader and a gutty cigar chomping old politician The act is a success story for government safety regulation It has cut highway death and injury rates by over seventy percent in the years since its enactment saving more than two million lives and billions of taxpayer dollars But the car safety wars have never ended GM has recently been charged with covering up deadly defects resulting in multiple ignition switch shut offs Toyota has been fined for not reporting fatal unintended acceleration in many models Honda and other companies have for years sold cars incorporating defective air bags These current events suggesting a failure of safety regulation may serve to warn us that safety laws and agencies created with good intentions can be corrupted and strangled over time This book suggests ways to avoid this result but shows that safer cars and highways are a hard road to travel We are only part of the way home Cloneliness Michael O'Sullivan, 2019-09-19 Recent posthuman philosophies human computer interface studies and technology inspired biopolitical discourses and practices are reinventing and reimagining loneliness in different communities Cloneliness The Reproduction of Loneliness takes a cross cultural approach to loneliness by examining 20th century artistic expressions and examinations of loneliness in the context of more recent global expressions grounded in social networks virtual reality the biopolitical commons academic credentialization and such practices as Hikikomori Newer forms of loneliness pushed by the algorithms of biopolitical capitalism result in what this books calls cloneliness Michael O Sullivan plots the transformation in loneliness in literature and philosophy in readings that take us from Henry James and such classic works as Frank O Connor s The Lonely Voice and Richard Yates s Eleven Kinds of Loneliness to more recent expressions in such writers as David Foster Wallace Yiyun Li and Sayaka Murata Michael O Sullivan argues that cloneliness as an institutional practice of reproduction in society nurtures normalizes and reproduces loneliness in order to create subjects who are more willing to accept ideologies of competition extreme individualism and the stresses of being interconnected loners Winter of the Heart Paula D'Arcy, 2018-02-16 We can t really prepare for grief
