The outsider essay In this essay there will be a couple characters from the book I will not mention all of them in this essay. The two groups are the soc and the greasers. The greasers are Ponyboy Curtis, Darrel Curtis, Sodapop Curtis, Two-bit Mathews, Dallas Winston and Johnny Cade. Sodapop has a girlfriend named sandy but she is not mentioned very much. The soc are Randy Anderson, Bob Sheldon, Paul Holden, and Jerry Wood. Bob and Randy both have a girlfriend Cherry Valance is a soc cheerleader and bob's girl friend there's also Marcia, Randy's girlfriend and cherry's friend. When they get to the rumble no one wants to start it off so Paul holden steps forward and waits for somebody else to do the same. Darry knows Paul from football. The rumble, start just as another member of the greasers shows up his name is doly. The rumble is set to start at 7:00pm and the meal before the rumble pony boy slams down five aspirin. The book is about the three Curtis brothers and it starts with pony boy walking home from school. Back to the rumble the rumble is in a vacant lot. When the socs show up the greasers are already there and waiting for the socs to show

The Wanderer in African American Literature Gena E. Chandler-Smith, 2024-01-12 The Wanderer in African American Literature highlights an enduring feature of African American letters From the slave narrative to Afrofuturism the literature is populated driven and emboldened by wanderers who know no bounds Gena E Chandler argues that wanderers and the theme of wandering push the limits of narrative forms and challenge assumptions about the African American experience The slave narratives of Olaudah Equiano and Harriet Jacobs echo eighteenth and nineteenth century literary traditions and chronicle journeys toward freedom and faith Equiano traces his changing identity integrating his native African culture with his adopted European one Jacobs addresses the gender restrictions she faces as a slave and then a free woman whose progress in life remains uncertain and ongoing La ngston Hughes and Nella Larsen chronicle real and imagined journeys during the Harlem Renaissance and the Great Migration Hughes's autobiography I Wonder as I Wander 1956 traces his global travels in the 1930s highlighting his unique identity as a black American Larsen's novel Quicksand 1928 follows its biracial heroine as she travels throughout the United States and to Denmark while navigating matters of race and gender The protagonist of Richard Wright's The Outsider 1953 seeks individual freedom and a new identity but is constrained within the boundaries of an American nation and a Western ideal that continuously views the black subject as outside and distinct from the modern project of advancement and freedom In James Baldwin's Giovanni's Room 1956 the white protagonist flees America for France yet cannot escape difficult questions about sexuality and race Finally John Edgar Wideman's The Cattle Killing 1996 tells the story of two wanderers an itinerant preacher spreading God's word during the Great Awakening and a twentieth century writer on a journey of self discovery about his identity and vocation The former experiences a crisis of his Christian faith and the latter endures a crisis of faith in his literary abilities Tying these diverse threads together Chandler demonstrates the power of the black narrative to assimilate and redeploy the literary trope of wanderlust exchanging its premise of rootless drifting for something altogether more mobilizing

Psychoanalysis and Black Novels Claudia Tate, 1998-02-12 Although psychoanalytic theory is one of the most important and influential tools in contemporary literary criticism to date it has had very little impact on the study of African American literature and culture Now Claudia Tate argues that psycholanalytic paradigms can produce rich readings of African American desire alienation and subjectivity Tate summarizes the work of such figures as Freud and Lacan with references to their contemporary literary proponents and examines a series of texts by Emma Kelly W E B Du Bois Richard Wright Zora Neale Hurston and Nella

Larsen This provocative new book will serve as an introduction to psychoanalytic theory and its application for African American literature and culture Tate strikes uncharted territory and her work will be of great interest to scholars and students in African American studies The Teaching Portfolio Russell Edgerton, Pat Hutchings, Kathleen Quinlan, 2023-07-03 This valuable work suggests one model in which faculty assemble a collection of carefully selected work samples accompanied by reflective commentary about them Covers the what why and how of teaching portfolios with pointers for getting started and a sampling of current campus practices Includes reproductions of eight actual portfolio entries The companion volume to Campus Use of the Teaching Portfolio
