The Memorandum Of Tourism Paper For September 2014:

Global Climate Change and Coastal Tourism Andrew L Jones, Michael Phillips, 2017-11-29 Building upon the book Disappearing Destinations Jones and Phillips 2010 and its conclusion that promoted the need to recognize problems meet expectations and manage solutions Global Climate Change and Coastal Tourism explores current threats to and consequences of climate change on existing tourism coastal destinations Part 1 of the book provides a theoretical platform and addresses topics such as sustainability tourism impacts governance trade and innovation and how the media addresses climate change and tourism It also assesses management and policy options for the future sustainability of threatened tourism coastal destinations Part 2 presents case studies from all regions of the world Europe The Americas Asia Africa and Australasia which synthesise findings to make recommendations that can be used to promote strategies that ameliorate projected impacts of climate change on coastal tourism infrastructure and in turn promote the future sustainability of coastal tourism destinations This is a timely and informative text with appeal to researchers undergraduate and post graduate students of tourism management tourism planning sustainable tourism development and leisure management coastal tourism management environmental management planning geography coastal zone management or climate change studies The SAGE Handbook of E-learning Research Caroline Haythornthwaite, Richard Andrews, Jude Fransman, Eric M.

Meyers, 2016-05-09 The new edition of The SAGE Handbook of E Learning Research retains the original effort of the first edition by focusing on research while capturing the leading edge of e learning development and practice Chapters focus on areas of development in e learning technology theory practice pedagogy and method of analysis Covering the full extent of e learning can be a challenge as developments and new features appear daily The editors of this book meet this challenge by including contributions from leading researchers in areas that have gained a sufficient critical mass to provide reliable results and practices The 25 chapters are organised into six key areas 1 THEORY 2 LITERACY LEARNING 3 METHODS PERSPECTIVES 4 PEDAGOGY PRACTICE 5 BEYOND THE CLASSROOM 6 FUTURES The State and Cosmopolitan Responsibilities Richard Beardsworth, Garrett Wallace Brown, Richard Shapcott, 2019-06-06 This book explores the role that states might play in promoting a cosmopolitan condition as an agent of cosmopolitanism rather than an obstacle to it In doing so the book seeks to develop recent arguments in favour of locating cosmopolitan moral and political responsibility at the state level as either an alternative to or a corollary of cosmopolitanism as it is more commonly understood qua requiring transnational or global bearers of responsibility As a result the contributions in this volume see an on going role for the state but also its transformation perhaps only partially into a more cosmopolitan minded institution instead of a purely national or particularistic one It therefore makes the case that the state as a form of political community can be reconciled with various form of cosmopolitan responsibility In this way the book will address the question of how states in the present and in the future can be better bearers of cosmopolitan responsibilities Our Gigantic Zoo Thomas M. Lekan, 2020 Our Gigantic Zoo tells the story of Bernhard Grzimek the most important European wildlife conservationist and his role in creating a permanent sanctuary for innocent animals in Serengeti National Park World Ocean Assessment Alan

Simcock,2017-04-17 This United Nations report examines the current state of knowledge of the world's oceans for policymakers and provides a reference for marine science courses European Products Gisela Welz,2015-09-01 On the Mediterranean island of Cyprus rural villages traditional artefacts even atmospheres and experiences are considered heritage Heritage making not only protects but also produces things people and places Since the Republic of Cyprus joined the European Union in 2004 heritage making and Europeanization are increasingly intertwined in Greek Cypriot society Against the backdrop of a long term ethnographic engagement the author argues that heritage emerges as an increasingly standardized economic resource a European product Implemented in historic preservation rural tourism culinary traditions nature protection and urban restoration projects heritage policy has become infused with transnational market regulations and neoliberal property regimes Institutional Arrangements for Conservation, Development and Tourism in

Eastern and Southern Africa René van der Duim,Machiel Lamers,Jakomijn van Wijk,2014-11-16 This book presents an overview of different institutional arrangements for tourism biodiversity conservation and rural poverty reduction in eastern and southern Africa These approaches range from conservancies in Namibia community based organizations in Botswana conservation enterprises in Kenya private game reserves in South Africa to sport hunting in Uganda and transfrontier conservation areas The book presents a comparative analysis of these arrangements and highlights that most arrangements emerged in the 1990s through either a decentralized or centralized change trajectory that was sponsored by donors They aim to address some of the challenges of the fortress types of conservation by combining principles of community based natural resource management with a neoliberal approach to conservation evident in the use of tourism as the main mechanism for accruing benefits from wildlife The book illustrates the empirical relevance of these novel arrangements by presenting their growth in numbers and discuss how these arrangements differ in their form With respect to the conservation and development impacts of these arrangements we show that they have secured large amounts of land for conservation but also generated governance challenges and disputes on tourism benefit sharing affecting the stability of these arrangements to generate socioeconomic and conservation benefits The Federated States of Micronesia's Engagement with the Outside World Gonzaga Puas,2021-09-28 This study addresses the neglected history of the people of the Federated States of Micronesia's FSM engagement with the outside world Situated in the northwest Pacific FSM's strategic location has led to four colonial rulers Histories of FSM to date have been largely written by sympathetic outsiders Indigenous perspectives of FSM history have been largely absent from the main corpus of historical literature A new generation of Micronesian scholars are starting to write their own history from Micronesian perspectives and using Micronesian forms of history This book argues that Micronesians have been dealing successfully with the outside world throughout the colonial era in ways colonial authorities were often unaware of This argument is sustained by examination of oral histories secondary sources interviews field research and the personal experience of a person raised in the Mortlock Islands of Chuuk State It reconstructs how Micronesian internal processes for social stability and mutual support endured rather than succumbing to the different waves of colonisation This study argues that colonisation did not destroy Micronesian cultures and identities but that Micronesians recontextualised the changing conditions to suit their own circumstances Their success rested on the indigenous doctrines of adaptation assimilation and accommodation deeply rooted in the kinship doctrine of eaea fengen sharing and alilis fengen assisting each other These values pervade the Constitution of the FSM which formally defines the modern identity of its indigenous peoples reasserting and perpetuating Micronesian values and future continuity

The Blue Commons Guy Standing, 2022-07-07 A FINANCIAL TIMES BEST ECONOMICS BOOK OF 2022 A landmark book The Blue Commons is at once a brilliant synthesis a searing analysis and an inspiring call to action David Bollier With remarkable erudition passion and lyricism Guy Standing commands the reader to wake up to the threat posed by rentier capitalism's violent policies for extraction exploitation and depletion of that which is both common to us all but also vital to our survival the sea and all within it Ann Pettifor Shines a bright light on the economy of the oceans directing us brilliantly towards where a sustainable future lies Danny Dorling This is a powerful visionary book essential reading for all who yearn for a better world Jason Hickel The sea provides more than half the oxygen we breathe food for billions of people and livelihoods for hundreds of millions But giant corporations are plundering the world's oceans aided by global finance and complicit states following the neoliberal maxim of Blue Growth The situation is dire rampant exploitation and corruption now drive all aspects of the ocean economy destroying communities intensifying inequalities and driving fish populations and other ocean life towards extinction The Blue Commons is an urgent call for change from a campaigning economist responsible for some of the most innovative solutions to inequality of recent times From large nations bullying smaller nations into giving up eco friendly fishing policies to the profiteering by the Crown Estate in commandeering much of the British seabed the scale of the global problem is synthesised here for the first time as well as a toolkit for all of us to rise up and tackle it The oceans have been left out of calls for a Green New Deal but must be at the centre of the fight against climate change How do we do it By building a Blue Commons alternative a transformative worldview and new set of proposals that prioritise the historic rights of local communities the wellbeing of all people and with it the health of our oceans

Hammer of the Caliphate Dave Dilegge, 2018-04-09 Part of the Small Wars Journal SWJ Anthology Hammer of the Caliphate is a continuation of previous works on the Islamic State Al Qaeda and their affiliate groups The anthology title is a play on words related to the fifteenth century treatise Malleus Maleficarum Hammer of the Witches Given the Islamic State's predisposition for engaging in heinous acts and barbaric atrocities in the name of their apocalyptic god one derived from a perverted version of what mainstream Islam is today declaring IS anathema to our modern world seems only fitting The work represents the fifth volume in the SWJ series of radical Islamist focused anthologies

The Continuing Imperialism of Free Trade Jo Grady, Chris Grocott, 2018-10-08 In 1953 John Gallagher and Ronald Robinson shook the foundations of imperial history with their essay The Imperialism of Free Trade They reshaped how historians saw the British empire focussing not on the red bits on the map and the wishes of policy makers in London but rather on British economic and political influence globally Expanding on this analysis this volume provides an examination of imperialism which brings the reader right up to the present This book offers an innovative assessment and analysis of the history and contemporary status of imperial control It does so in four parts examining the historical emergence and traditions of imperialism the relationships between the periphery and the metropolitan the role of supranational agencies in the extension of imperial control and how these connect to financialisation and international political economy The book provides a dynamic and unique perspective on imperialism by bringing together a range of contributors both established and up and coming scholars activists and those from industry from a wide range of disciplines and backgrounds In providing these authors a space to apply their insights this engaging volume sheds light on the practical implications of imperialism for the contemporary world With a broad chronological and geographical sweep this book provides theoretical and empirical engagements with the nature of imperialism and its effects upon societies It will be of great interest to a broad range of disciplines across the humanities and social sciences especially those working in History Politics and Management and Organisation Studies

Rethinking Heritage for Sustainable Development Sophia Labadi,2022-06-06 The Sustainable Development Goals SDGs adopted by the UN in 2015 have influenced the actions of international and intergovernmental organisations and governments around the world and have dictated priorities for international aid spending Culture including heritage is often presented as fundamental to addressing the SDGs since 2010 the United Nations has adopted no fewer than five major policy recommendations that assert its importance as a driver and enabler of development Yet heritage is marginalized from the Sustainable Development Goals Rethinking Heritage for Sustainable Development constitutes a substantial and original assessment of whether and how heritage has contributed to three key dimensions of sustainable development namely poverty reduction gender equality and environmental sustainability within the context of its marginalisation from the Sustainable Development Goals and from previous international development agendas Sophia Labadi adopts a novel inclusive large scale and systematic approach providing the first comprehensive history of the international approaches on culture including heritage for development from 1970 to the present day This book is also the first to assess the negative and positive impacts of all the international projects implemented in sub Saharan Africa by a consortium of UN organisations that aimed to provide evidence for the contribution of heritage for development in time for the negotiation of the SDGs The book s conclusions provide recommendations for rethinking heritage for development while reflecting on the major shortcomings of the selected projects

We the Possibility Mitchell Weiss,2021-01-19 Can we solve big public problems anymore Yes we can This provocative and inspiring book points the way The huge challenges we face are daunting indeed climate change crumbling infrastructure declining public education and social services At the same time we ve come to accept the sad notion that government can t do new things or solve tough problems it s too big too slow and mired in bureaucracy Not so says former public official now Harvard Business School professor Mitchell Weiss The truth is entrepreneurial spirit and savvy in government are growing transforming the public sector s response to big problems at all levels The key Weiss argues is a shift from a mindset of Probability Government overly focused on safe solutions and mimicking so called best practices to Possibility Government This means public leadership and management that s willing to boldly imagine new possibilities and to experiment Weiss shares the three basic tenets of this new way of governing Government that can imagine Seeing problems as opportunities and involving citizens in designing solutions Government that can try new things Testing and experimentation as a regular part of solving public problems Government that can scale Harnessing platform techniques for innovation and growth The lessons unfold in the timely episodes Weiss has seen and studied the US Special Operations Command prototyping of a hoverboard for chasing pirates a heroin hackathon in opioid ravaged Cincinnati a series of experiments in Singapore to rein in Covid 19 among many others At a crucial moment in the evolution of government's role in our society We the Possibility provides inspiration and a positive model along with crucial guardrails to help shape progress for generations to come

Imagining the Tropics Elizabeth S. Manley, Elizabeth Manley, 2025-05-13 Imagining the Tropics is a history of the development of tourism in the Caribbean from the 1910s through the 1970s that focuses on the ways women's labors of hospitality writing and advocacy built the industry and its ubiquitous imagery of tropical island relaxation escape and romance By examining a range of sources engaging an array of women protagonists and looking broadly across multiple Caribbean island states including Jamaica Cuba the Bahamas Barbados the Dominican Republic Haiti Puerto Rico Trinidad and Tobago and the U S and British Virgin Islands it seeks to understand how the region came to be sold as a romantic escape from the troubles of the modern world By putting women at the center of Caribbean tourism history as both its ambassadors and objects of desire it seeks to explain some of the complicated contradictions that plague the business of pleasure but also to point toward ways of building alternative models to its present and past extractive realities

Lifelong Learning for Tourism Violet V. Cuffy, David Airey, Georgios C. Papageorgiou, 2017-09-07 Since the middle of the last century tourism has demonstrated almost continual growth with international tourist arrivals now recorded in excess of one billion per annum Given the global socio economic significance of tourism it is imperative to develop educational opportunities for those working in tourism related industries These opportunities should fulfil the changing needs of both industry travellers and the learners themselves While the concept of lifelong learning in the tourism industry plays an important role it has received little academic attention to date This book provides a theoretical overview of lifelong learning for tourism exploring its history practice and conceptualization It demonstrates the importance of lifelong learning for tourism from a variety of perspectives drawing on educational industry policy and socio economic insights The book explores managerial and political implications critical issues best practice examples and draws on a range of international case studies to demonstrate theory in practice Finally it offers a conceptual framework for future curriculum approaches This book will be of interest to students scholars and practitioners of tourism studies hospitality business and management and international development It will also appeal to those interested in adult education vocational training professional development and pedagogy
