Mexican Literature David William Foster, 1994-01-01 Mexico has a rich literary heritage that extends back over centuries to the Aztec and Mayan civilizations This major new reference work surveys more than five hundred years of Mexican literature from a sociocultural perspective More than merely a catalog of names and titles it examines in detail the literary phenomena that constitute Mexico's most significant and original contributions to literature Recognizing that no one scholar can authoritatively cover so much territory David William Foster has assembled a group of specialists some of them younger scholars who write from the most current and emerging trends in Latin American and Mexican literary scholarship The topics they discuss include pre-Columbian indigenous writing Joanna O'Connell Colonial literature Lee H. Dowling Romanticism Margarita Vargas nineteenth century prose fiction Mario Martín Flores Modernism Bart L. Lewis major twentieth century genres narrative Lanin A. Gyurko poetry Adriana García theater Kirsten F. Nigro the essay Martín S. and major texts and includes an annotated bibliography of important critical sources and reference works Handbook of Hispanic Cultures in the United States: Literature and Art Nicolàs Kanellos, Claudia Esteva-Fabregat, Francisco Lomelí, 1993-01-01 Recovering the U S Hispanic Literary Project is a national project to locate identify preserve and make accessible the literary contributions of U S Hispanics from colonial times through 1960 in what today comprises the fifty states of the United States Literature and Ethnicity in the Cultural Borderlands, 2016-08-29 This volume stems from the idea that the notion of borders and borderlines as clear cut frontiers separating not only political and geographical areas but also cultural linguistic and semiotic spaces does not fully address the complexity of contemporary cultural encounters Centering on a whole range of literary works from the United States and the Caribbean the contributors suggest and discuss different theoretical and methodological grounds to address the literary production taking place across the lines in North American and Caribbean culture The volume represents a pioneering attempt at proposing the concept of the border as a useful paradigm not only for the study of Chicano literature but also for the other American literatures The works presented in the volume illustrate various aspects and manifestations of the textual border lands and explore the double voiced discourse of border texts by writers like Harriet E Wilson Rudolfo Anaya Toni Morrison Cormac McCarthy Louise Erdrich Helena Viramontes Paule Marshall and Monica Sone among others This book is of interest for scholars and researchers in the field of comparative American studies and ethnic studies Postmodern Cross-culturalism and Politicization in U.S. Latina Literature Fatima Mujčinović, 2004 Employing a comparative and cross ethnic approach this book provides a sophisticated literary and cultural analysis of texts by Mexican American Puerto Rican Cuban American and Dominican American women writers As she engages contemporary feminist political postcolonial and psychoanalytic theory Fatima Muj inovi investigates how selected U S Latina narratives have proposed a rethinking of minority subject positioning under the postmodern conditions of cultural hybridization gender objectification political oppression and geographic displacement In its emphasis on gendered diasporic exilic and geopolitical identities this book specifically examines works by Ana Castillo Cristina Garc a Graciela Lim n Demetria Mart nez Rosario Morales Aurora Levins Morales Judith Ortiz Cofer Helena Mar a Viramontes and Julia Alvarez The Will to Heal Felicia Lynne Fahey, 2007 How six Latina authors whose works combine autobiography and fiction use this technique to heal from personal and political trauma Reading Chican@ Like a Queer Sandra K. Soto, 2010-01-01 A race based oppositional paradigm has informed Chicano studies since its emergence In this work Sandra K Soto replaces that paradigm with a less didactic more flexible framework geared for a queer analysis of the discursive relationship between racialization and sexuality Through rereadings of a diverse range of widely discussed writers from Amrico Paredes to Cherr e Moraga Soto demonstrates that representations of racialization actually depend on the sexual and that a racialized sexuality is a heretofore unrecognized organizing principle of Chican literature even in the most unlikely texts Soto gives us a broader and deeper engagement with Chican representations of racialization desire and both inter and intracultural social relations While several scholars have begun to take sexuality seriously by invoking the rich terrain of contemporary Chicana feminist literature for its portrayal of culturally specific and historically laden gender and sexual frameworks as well as for its imaginative transgressions against them this is the first study to theorize racialized sexuality as pervasive to and enabling of the canon of Chicana literature Exemplifying the broad usefulness of queer theory by extending its critical tools and anti heteronormative insights to racialization Soto stages a crucial intervention amid a certain loss of optimism that circulates both as a fear that queer theory was a fad whose time has passed and that queer theory is incapable of offering an incisive politically grounded analysis in and of the current historical moment Writing Outside the Nation Azade Seyhan, 2012-01-06 Some of the most innovative writers of contemporary literature are writing in diaspora in their second or third language Here Azade Seyhan describes the domain of transnational poetics they inhabit She begins by examining the works of selected bilingual and bicultural writers of the United States including Oscar Hijuelos Maxine Hong Kingston and Eva Hoffman and Germany Libuse Mon kov Rafik Schami and E S zdamar among others developing a new framework for understanding the relationship between displacement memory and language Considering themes of loss witness translation identity and exclusion Seyhan interprets diasporic literatures as condensed archives of cultural and linguistic memory that give integrity and coherence to pasts ruptured by migration The book next compares works by contemporary Chicana and Turkish German women writers as innovative and sovereign literary voices within the larger national cultures of the United States and Germany Seyhan identifies in American multiculturalism critical clues for analyzing new cultural formations in Europe and maintains that Germany s cultural transformation suggests new ways of reading the American literary mosaic Her approach however extends well beyond these two literatures She creates a critical map of a third geography where a transnational multilingual literary movement is gathering momentum Writing Outside the Nation both contributes to and departs from postcolonial studies in that it focuses specifically on transnational writers working outside of their mother tongue and compares American and German diasporic literatures within a sophisticated conceptual framework It illustrates how literature s symbolic economy can reclaim lost personal and national histories as well as connect disparate and distant cultural traditions Chicana Portraits Norma Elia Cantú, 2023-10-10 This innovative collection pairs portraits with critical biographies of twelve key Chicana writers offering an engaging look at their work contributions to the field and major achievements Artist Raquel Valle Sent es s portraits bring visual dimension while essays delve deeply into the authors lives for details that inform their literary artistic feminist and political trajectories and sensibilities The collection brilliantly intersects artistic visual and literary cultural productions allowing complex themes to emerge such as the fragility of life sexism and misogyny Chicana agency and forging one s own path the struggles of becoming a writer and battling self doubt economic instability and political engagement and activism Arranged chronologically by birth order of the authors the book can be read cover to cover for a genealogical overview or scholars and
