Pitman's Journal of Commercial Education ,1905 The Novels of Iris Murdoch Volume Two Iris Murdoch, 2018-10-16 Three unforgettable novels from the Man Booker Prize winning author of The Sea the Sea and consummate storyteller The Independent One of the most significant novelists of her generation The Guardian the prodigiously inventive British author Iris Murdoch grappled with questions of morality as well as the nature of love in novels that are every bit as entertaining as they are thought provoking The New York Times Over the span of her career she was the recipient of the Man Booker Prize the Whitbread Literary Award and the James Tait Black Memorial Prize The Flight from the Enchanter In 1950s London when the enigmatic and charismatic businessman Mischa Fox turns his entrepreneurial gaze on a small feminist magazine his intoxicating influence begins to affect the lives of those involved the fragile editor Hunter his sister Rosa who splits her time and affections between her brother and two other men innocent Annette whose journey from school to the real world ends up being more fraught than she could have foreseen as well as their circle of friends and acquaintances all of whom find themselves both seduced and repulsed by Fox Brilliant witty and original The Sunday Times The Red and the Green In 1916 as World War I rages across Europe Andrew Chase White lieutenant in the British army travels to Ireland to see his extended family Though he was raised in England by Protestant parents many of his relations on the Emerald Isle are Catholic and nationalist His arrival in Dublin ignites old resentments new passions political tensions and religious crises sending the family into a torrent of fights and alliances affairs and betrayals And as the historic gunfire begins at the General Post Office on the day of the Easter Rebellion the lives of Andrew and his kin will be changed forever Murdoch is prodigiously inventive The New York Times The Time of the Angels In a crumbling London rectory after the Second World War a priest descends

into a spiritual crisis and madness Carel Fisher was once a bastion of faith a shining example of Anglican goodness and Christian values But time and circumstance have worn him down as surely as the bombs of the Blitz have broken apart the very walls around him His convictions have vanished as has his belief in mankind As relationships and desires resentments and retributions begin to crowd the small church secrets are revealed that will shatter the lives of all involved Excites and delights The New York Times The typist's manual Edith Collyns, 1901 Proust in Perspective Armine Kotin Mortimer, Katherine Kolb, 2002-08-07 Marcel Proust speaks to us today as a contemporary and a classic His great novel resonates across languages and time summing up the past interpreting the present and envisioning the future For Proust in Perspective scholars from France Italy Belgium Germany Sweden Japan Canada and the United States have drawn on rich new editions of Proust's novel and correspondence to bring us fresh views of his work In nineteen original essays a foreword by Jean Yves Tadi and an introduction by editors Armine Kotin Mortimer and Katherine Kolb this volume guides readers through the dense weave of Proust's fiction and correspondence The essays take us into the realm of Proustian language as quotation metaphor and memory and into art history and musical ideology connecting the art of words with the words of art They explore the interface of history and fiction the mysteries of the text s evolution and the dilemmas of its publication They present the revelations of genetic criticism and the surprises of gender analysis Taken together these essays conjure a multifaceted profile of Proust his work life character and influence and of new directions in Proust scholarship today With compelling rigor and infectious enthusiasm Proust in Perspective conveys the magnitude of Proust's continuing appeal

The Detective Novels of Agatha Christie James Zemboy, 2016-03-15 The most popular mystery writer of all time concocted a rich recipe of intrigue character and setting All of Agatha Christie s 66 detective novels are covered here in great detail Each chapter begins with general comments on a novel s geographical and historical setting identifying current events fashions fads and popular interests that relate to the story A concise plot summary and comprehensive character listing follow and each novel is discussed within Christie's overall body of work with an emphasis on the development of themes narrative technique and characters over the course of her prolific career An appendix translates Poirot's French and defines the British idiomatic words and phrases that give Christie's novels so much of their flavor What the Lady Wants Renée Rosen, 2014-11-04 In late nineteenth century Chicago visionary retail tycoon Marshall Field made his fortune wooing women customers with his famous motto Give the lady what she wants His legendary charm also won the heart of socialite Delia Spencer and led to an infamous love affair The night of the Great Fire as seventeen year old Delia watches the flames rise and consume what was the pioneer town of Chicago she can t imagine how much her life her city and her whole world are about to change Nor can she guess that the agent of that change will not simply be the fire but more so the man she meets that night Leading the way in rebuilding after the fire Marshall Field reopens his well known dry goods store and transforms it into something the world has never seen before a glamorous palace of a department store He and his powerhouse coterie including Potter Palmer and George Pullman usher in the age of robber barons the American royalty of their generation But behind the opulence their private lives are riddled with scandal and heartbreak Delia and Marshall first turn to each other out of loneliness but as their love deepens they will stand together despite disgrace and ostracism through an age of devastation and opportunity when an adolescent Chicago is transformed into the gleaming White City of the Chicago s World s Fair of 1893 A Tender Thing Emily Neuberger, 2021-04-06 An exhilarating debut novel set under the dazzling lights of late 1950s Broadway where a controversial new musical pushes the boundaries of love legacy and art Growing up in rural Wisconsin Eleanor O Hanlon always felt different In love with musical theater from a young age she memorized every show album she could get her hands on So when she discovers an open call for one of her favorite productions she leaves behind everything she knows to run off to New York City and audition Raw and untrained she catches the eye of famed composer Don Mannheim who catapults her into the leading role of his new work A Tender Thing a provocative love story between a white woman and black man one never before seen on a Broadway stage As news of the production spreads setting off an outpouring of protest that threatens the possibility of the show itself Eleanor is forced to confront her own naive beliefs about the world Pulsing with the vitality and drive of 1950s New York A Tender Thing immerses readers right into the heart of Broadway's Golden Age a time in which the music soared and the world was on the White Collar Girl Renée Rosen, 2015-11-03 Jordan Walsh dreams of being a journalist like her parents and brink of change her brother But it s 1955 and the men who dominate the newsroom of the Chicago Tribune have no interest in making room for a female cub reporter Of course that all changes the moment she gets her hands on some confidential information from Mayor Daley's office Now everyone is hanging on Jordan's every word But even if she succeeds in landing on the front page there s no guarantee she ll remain above the fold A Lady of Good Family Jeanne Mackin, 2015-06-02 From the author of The Beautiful American comes a richly imagined beautifully written novel about historical figure Beatrix Farrand one of the first female landscape architects Raised among wealth and privilege during America's fabled Gilded Age a niece of famous novelist Edith Wharton and a friend to literary great Henry James Beatrix Farrand is expected to marry and marry well But as a young woman traveling through Europe with her mother and aunt she already knows that gardens are her true passion How this highborn woman with unconventional views escapes the dictates of society to become the most celebrated female landscape designer in the country is the story of her unique determination to create beauty and serenity while remaining true to herself Beatrix's journey begins at the age of twenty three in the Borghese Gardens of Rome where she meets beguiling Amerigo Massimo an Italian gentleman of sensitivity and charm a man unlike any she has known before Rush to Victory Robert E. Seikel, 2012-03-29 RUSH TO VICTORY is the story of a young man and woman caught up in WWII This is a story based on submarine warfare in the Pacific Most of the characters are fictitious but the action and other events are based on historical facts Read and learn about the sacrifices made and the achievments of our nation within a four year period You will
