Tourism and Monarchy in Southeast Asia Ploysri Porananond, 2016-09-23 Monarchies around the world play a significant role in tourism development and the tourist experience Debates about the level of finance required to support monarchies often refer to the positive tourist attraction provided by royal pageantry palaces temples and churches architecture museum collections and historical legacies Up to now the literature on tourism and monarchy has been primarily devoted to the history and experiences of Western Europe particularly the United Kingdom There has been little attention devoted to the relationship between monarchy and tourism development in Southeast Asia and this is the first collection of essays to address this neglected field of study The need to shift the focus from European to Asian royalty is important not only to begin to fill gaps in the literature on monarchy and tourism outside Europe but also to avoid the increasing criticism of tourism studies that its major perspectives orientations and paradigms have been based on an overly Eurocentric preoccupation Case studies are taken from Thailand Laos Myanmar Vietnam Malaysia Indonesia Brunei Darussalam and Singapore
