From Polarisation to Multispecies Relationships Janet J. McIntyre-Mills, Yvonne Corcoran-Nantes, 2021-08-05 This book explores the concept of multi species relationships and suggests critical systemic pathways to protect shared habitats This book discusses how the eradication of species as a result of rapid urbanisation places humanity at risk This book demonstrates how narrow anthropocentrism has focused on the rights of human beings at the expense of other species and the environment This book explores a priori norms and a posteriori measures and indicators to include and protect multiple species This book aims to strengthen institutional capacity and powers to address and extend the UN 2030 Sustainable Development Agenda by drawing on local wisdom but also the need to implement laws to prevent ecocide This book highlights that our fragile interdependence requires a recognition of our hybridity and interconnectedness within the web of life and suggests ways to reframe policy within and beyond the nation state to support living systems of which we are a strand Gaffney's Local Government in South Africa,2009 South Africa Yearbook,2006 African Placenames Adrian Room,2024-10-18 In this useful work detailing more than 2 500 African placenames of all types each entry identifies the country and in most cases geographical location within the country An account of the name s origin and meaning follows along with appropriate historical topographical and biological references Cross references provide former names alternate spellings and alternate forms of current names An introduction comprises a geographical summary a chronological survey of the exploration and colonization of Africa and an overview of African languages Portfolio,2008 The Corner People of Lady Selborne John Seakalala Mojapelo,2009 Lady Selborne was a comparatively small place situated in an area on the slopes of the gentle Magaliesberg mountains to the west of the city centre of Pretoria By 1942 the multiracial Lady Selborne was home to about 22 000 people the majority of whom were Northern Sotho but also including Nguni Shangaan coloured Indian white and Chinese people It was to become the largest Group Areas Act dispossession project in Pretoria back cover The Guide to COIL Virtual Exchange Jon Rubin,Sarah Guth,2023-07-03 This is the authoritative guide to implementing COIL Virtual Exchange conceived and co edited by one of the originators of this innovative approach to internationalization Jon Rubin COIL the acronym for Collaborative Online International Learning is a central modality of what has come to be known as virtual exchange Since its first iteration in 2002 it has gradually established itself as a mature pedagogy that is being increasingly implemented across the world and is validated by a growing body of research COIL Virtual Exchange at its most essential is a bi lateral online exchange involving the integration of existing courses across two or sometimes more institutions that are geographically and or culturally distinct To launch a COIL VE course the instructor of a class at a higher education institution in one location links online with a professor and his or her class in another region or country Together their students engage and develop joint projects usually over a continuous five to eight week period Compared to the limited number of students worldwide who can engage in study abroad COIL VE potentially opens up more equitable and inclusive participation in international education and intercultural experiences to all students involves them in rigorous disciplinary and interdisciplinary studies and promotes close and constructive engagement with students with different cultural perspectives While many COIL courses are launched by individual instructors based on their research connections and online outreach they are being increasingly supported and led by dedicated COIL Coordinators who facilitate virtual exchanges and provide professional development This comprehensive guide covers COIL VE pedagogy provides examples of what takes place in the COIL classroom and explores what instructors and staff need to know to facilitate and support a variety of COIL courses across the curriculum It addresses how institutional stakeholders especially those in leadership positions can develop and embed a successful COIL initiative at their institution It offers varied perspectives of COIL viewed from different institutional and cultural vantage points from research universities community and technical colleges and university systems and describes how COIL VE is developing in five different world regions presenting eleven case studies The book concludes with a guide to thirteen global organizations that support COIL and other forms of VE Additionally the book provides links to the COIL Connect for Virtual Exchange website <https://coilconnect.org> which includes an updated directory of organizations an expanding database of faculty and institutions participating in COIL and looking for partners course templates survey data and case studies This book offers faculty and administrators across the world whether formally involved in international education in service learning and community engagement or wanting to incorporate a cross cultural perspective in their disciplinary courses theoretical foundations guidance on effective collaboration and the strategic and pedagogical considerations to develop robust COIL VE courses and programs The New York Times Index ,2005 Leading Architecture & Design ,2004

Contemporary Musicians ,2006 Lands and Peoples ,2005 Beyond Memory Max Mojapelo,2008 South Africa possesses one of the richest popular music traditions in the world from marabi to mbaqanga from boeremusiek to bubblegum from kwela to kwaito Yet the risk that future generations of South Africans will not know their musical roots is very real Of all the recordings made here since the 1930s thousands have been lost for ever for the powers that be never deemed them worthy of preservation And if one peruses the books that exist on South African popular music one still finds that their authors have on occasion jumped to conclusions that were not as foregone as they had assumed Yet the fault lies not with them rather in the fact that there has been precious little documentation in South Africa of who played what or who recorded what with whom and when This is true of all music making in this country though it is most striking in the musics of the black communities Beyond Memory Recording the History Moments and Memories of South African Music is an invaluable publication because it offers a first hand account of the South African music scene of the past decades from the pen of a man Max Thamagana Mojapelo who was situated in the very thick of things thanks to his job as a deejay at the South African Broadcasting Corporation This book astonishing for the breadth of its coverage is based on his diaries on interviews he conducted and on numerous other sources and we find in it not only the well known names of recent South African music but a countless host of others whose contribution must be recorded if we and future generations are to gain an accurate picture of South African music history of the late 20th and early 21st centuries Lands and Peoples Scholastic Library Publishing,Scholastic, Inc.,2006-01-29 This six volume set explores the people and culture of many nations on earth
