On Your Own Mosibudi Mangena, 1989 Reflections in Prison Mac Maharaj, 2010-11-18 In 1976 when he was imprisoned on Robben Island Nelson Mandela secretly wrote the bulk of his autobiography Long Walk to Freedom. The manuscript was to be smuggled out by fellow prisoner Mac Maharaj on his release later that year. Maharaj also urged Mandela and other political prisoners to write essays on southern Africa's political future. These were smuggled out with Mandela's autobiography and are now published for the first time 25 years later in Reflections in Prison. This collection of essays provides a unique snapshot of the thinking of Nelson Mandela, Walter Sisulu, Govan Mbeki, Ahmed Kathrada and other leaders of the anti-apartheid struggle on the eve of the 1976 Soweto Uprising. It gives an insight into their philosophies, strategies and hopes as they debate diversity and unity, violent and non-violent forms of struggle and non-racism in the context of different interpretations of African nationalism. Each essay is preceded by a short biography of the author, a description of his life in prison and a pencil sketch by a leading black South African artist. The collection begins with a foreword by Desmond Tutu and a contextualising introduction by Mac Maharaj. These essays are far more than historical artefacts. They reveal the thinking that contributed to the South African miracle and address issues that remain burning today.

The Black Consciousness Reader Baldwin Ndaba, Therese Owen, Masego Panyane, Rabbie Sermula, Janet Smith, 2019-04-25 There is a current revival of Black Consciousness as political and student movements around the world as well as academics and campaigners working in decolonization reconfigure the continued struggle for socio-economic revolution. Yet the roots of Black Consciousness and its relation to other movements such as Black Lives Matter have only begun to be explored. Black Consciousness has deep connections to the struggle against apartheid. The Black Consciousness Reader is an essential collection of history, culture, philosophy and meaning of Black Consciousness by some of the thinkers, artists and activists who developed it in order to finally bring revolution to South Africa. A contribution to the world's Black cultural archive, it examines how the proper acknowledgement of Blackness brings a greater love, a broader sweep of heroes and a wider understanding of intellectual and political influences. Although the legendary murdered activist Steve Biko is a strong figure within this history, the book documents many other significant international Black Consciousness personalities and focuses a predominantly African eye on Black Consciousness in politics, land, women, power, art, music and religion. Onkgopotse Tiro, Vuyelwa Mashalaba, Winnie Madikizela, Mandela Assata, Shakur, Marcus Garvey, Neville Alexander, Thomas Sankara, Malcolm X, Don Mattera, Keorapetse Kgositse, W. E. B. DuBois, Walter Rodney, Mongane Wally Serote, Ready D and Zola are among the many bold minds included in this amalgam of facts, ideas and images.

Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa

Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel, 2020-12-25 Human movement has an influence on the socio economic dynamics of people regions and countries The schisms between host and immigrants impact how host countries utilize immigrant skills and expertise to benefit their economies However immigrants are impacted by negative diplomatic relations between countries that limit the free movement of people and the welfare of immigrants In association this brings about social challenges such as Afrophobia racism xenophobia hatred and violence within these countries While these challenges are deeply rooted across the world Africa has its own unique challenges Still struggling with massive underdevelopment Africa needs to remove all the negative factors that could impede its quest of achieving development imperatives Impact of Immigration and Xenophobia on Development in Africa analyzes the genesis and evolution of immigration in Africa and how this has resulted in social challenges such as xenophobia within the continent The book focuses on demonstrating how immigrant skills and expertise can be positively utilized to assist African development and asserts the existence of xenophobia in respective countries does not assist Africa's quest of resolving its own challenges. The chapters within this book therefore explore how this subsequent output of xenophobia has impacted African development and focuses on the revival of Pan Africanism as a uniting instrument and ideology for Africans. This book is a valuable reference tool for activists, retired and practicing politicians, governments, policymakers, practitioners, stakeholders, researchers, students, and academicians.

South Africa's Resistance Press Les Switzer, Mohamed Adhikari, 2000. South Africa's Resistance Press is a collection of essays celebrating the contributions of scores of newspapers, newsletters, and magazines that confronted the state in the generation after 1960. These publications contributed in no small measure to reviving a mass movement inside South Africa that would finally bring an end to apartheid. This marginalized press had an impact on its audience that cannot be measured in terms of the small number of issues sold, the limited amount of advertising revenue raised, or the relative absence of effective marketing and distribution strategies. These journalists rendered communities visible that were too often invisible and provided a voice for those too often voiceless. They contributed immeasurably to broadening the concept of a free press in South Africa. The guardians of the new South Africa owe these publications a debt of gratitude that cannot be repaid.

Limpopo's Legacy Anne Heffernan, 2019. Argues that the historical primacy of youth politics in Limpopo, South Africa, has influenced the production of generations of nationally prominent youth and student activists among them Julius Malema, Onkgopotse Tiro, Cyril Ramaphosa, Frank Chikane, and Peter Mokaba.
