Proceedings of the Trustees of the John F. Slater Fund for the Education of Freedmen John F. Slater Fund, 1908

Proceedings of the Trustees of the John F. Slater Fund for the Education of Freedmen John F. Slater Fund for the Education of Freedmen, 1902 The Church Stimulus Package Rev. Dr. John Edward Washington, 2010-09-23

Whether you are a pastor seminary student minister Christian education specialist or lay person this book is a complete source for assisting and guiding you through the steps of creating The Church Stimulus Package that Will Jump Start your Ministry and Revitalize Your Church numerable physically and financially This book gives you all the tools you need to revitalize a stagnant declining ministry Offering proven methods the author shows you how to create conduct and implement a Congregational Assessment tailored to your church particular problem or problems Covering everything from analyzing your congregation s resources to overcoming obstacles and problems this realistic hands on guide will definitely Jump Start Your declining Ministry and Revitalize Your Church The economy of the United States was in shamble then on January 13 2008 President Barack Obama unveiled a plan to revitalize the United States economy in the short term with a stimulus package that he said will immediately inject billions into the economy This book is a practical step by step resource based upon 38 years of experience sound biblical foundation and academic research This book contains the prescription is a must read and will be useful for pastors sincerely interested in strengthening and revitalizing a church in decline numerable financially and or physically A History of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Bp. Charles Spencer Smith, 1922

The Bishops of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Richard Robert Wright, 1963 The Encyclopaedia of the African Methodist Episcopal Church Richard Robert Wright, 1947 Containing principally the biographies of the men and women both ministers and laymen whose labors during a hundred and sixty years helped make the AME Church what it is Also short historical sketches of Annual Conferences educational institutions General Departments Missionary Societies of the AME Church and general information about historical theological sociological legal and other matters concerning African Methodism and the Christian church in general Preparing the Pastors We Need George A. Mason, 2012-11-06 Amid the widespread discussion about the future of the church an important point is sometimes overlooked tomorrow s church will depend to a great extent on the new pastors of today who will serve and guide our churches in the years ahead George Mason s Preparing the Pastors We Need Reclaiming the Congregation s Role in Training Clergy makes a timely intervention asking us to redefine pastoral leadership by analyzing how in fact pastors are made in the first place The book highlights an exciting development in the training of pastors pastoral residency programs and mentoring Mason demonstrates that these programs work best when the congregations themselves not just leadership or staff are an active participant in the training In this way churches begin to reclaim their rightful role in the formation of the ministers that will serve them And at the same time they become healthier and more effective churches Mason gives us the analogy of physician training Medical school produces graduates with extensive knowledge of the body but a practicing doctor will require several more years of internship and residency Similarly our seminaries and divinity schools produce men and women with good biblical knowledge but they might not prepare a graduate for the task of helping a bereaved parishioner cope with the sudden loss of a loved one Moreover such areas as finances budgets personnel management and vocational identity are also not well suited to seminary study Mason shows that congregation based mentoring and residency are excellent ways to bridge this gap

The Quest for Citizenship Kim Cary Warren,2010-09-13 In The Quest for Citizenship Kim Cary Warren examines the formation of African American and Native American citizenship belonging and identity in the United States by comparing educational experiences in Kansas between 1880 and 1935 Warren focuses her study on Kansas thought by many to be the quintessential free state not only because it was home to sizable populations of Indian groups and former slaves but also because of its unique history of conflict over freedom during the antebellum period After the Civil War white reformers opened segregated schools ultimately reinforcing the very racial hierarchies that they claimed to challenge To resist the effects of these reformers actions African Americans developed strategies that emphasized inclusion and integration while autonomy and bicultural identities provided the focal point for Native Americans understanding of what it meant to be an American Warren argues that these approaches to defining American citizenship served as ideological precursors to the Indian rights and civil rights movements This comparative history of two nonwhite races provides a revealing analysis of the intersection of education social control and resistance and the formation and meaning of identity for minority groups in America
