Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century Tshishonga, Ndwakhulu, 2025-04-03

Student activism and citizenship remain an integral part of the governance of academic institutions democratizing the learning environment and advancing democratic values and societal change. As a result, student activism has become a key aspect of the global higher education landscape. Individually and through the student councils, students have been at the forefront fighting for social justice and equality inside their academic institutions and in larger society by fusing activism with citizenship. Through student activism and citizenship, students demonstrate their power to keep governments responsible and in redirecting the voices of students in higher education's decision-making processes. Further exploration may afford students the opportunity to influence social change by partaking in educational policy reforms and broadening global sociopolitical and economic growth. Campus Student Activism, Politics, and Citizenship in the 21st Century examines the dynamics of campus politics through student activism and citizenship perspectives, academia, public, private, and civil society sectors. It explores how student leadership engages university society stakeholders including management and governance structures and student welfare and institutional policy reformation in defense of the rights and interests of students. This book covers topics such as higher education political engagement and social justice and is a useful resource for policymakers, government officials, sociologists, political scientists, academicians, and researchers.

Poverty, Inequality, and Innovation in the Global South Oliver Mtsheni, 2023-03-03 This edited volume analyzes the experiences learned in practice especially among small holder farmers to eradicate poverty. In other words, it discusses practical solutions which small scale farmers can use to alleviate poverty and reduce inequality. This addresses the issue of inclusive and sustainability of projects leading to the notion of not leaving anyone behind. The book provides insights that can be translated into policy with potential to inform practice. It also has the potential to address the issue of rural urban migration by providing knowledge that is usable by small scale farmers, policy makers, and entrepreneurs alike. The volume is written by authors from different countries: Nigeria, Tanzania, and Zimbabwe, indicating the commonality of the problems of poverty and inequality. It contains insights from all these countries assembled together into an amalgam of practices ready to use and implement, informed by evidence from the field as most of the chapters are based on empirical data.

Arming Black Consciousness Toivo Tukongeni Paul Wilson Asheke, 2023-06-08 Since 1994, as the ruling party in South Africa, the ANC have become synonymous with and indivisible from the fight against apartheid rule. This has left little space for competing accounts, visions, and political projects to find their appropriate place in the historical narrative. In this innovative book, Toivo Asheke moves beyond these well-trodden histories to tell the previously neglected story of the Black Consciousness Movement (BCM), a militant revolutionary nationalist wing of the anti-colonial struggle. Using archival sources from four countries and interviews with former veterans of the movement, Asheke explores the BCM's engagement with guerrilla warfare, community feminism, and Black

Internationalism Uncovering the personal and political histories of those who have previously received scant scholarly attention Asheeke both illuminates the history of Africa s decolonization struggle and that of the wider Cold War Looking Through Philosophy in Black Mabogo Percy More,2018-12-11 This autobiography is a series of interrelated true life events and decisions taken by a black philosopher that highlight the human drama unfolding in the inferno of the South African apartheid system Mabogo More details what it means to be a black philosopher in an anti black apartheid academic world More s life story traces his emergence in philosophy and his pursuit of a philosophical dream a dream that takes him from his South African black ghetto township to American and British universities and finally to the prestigious Frantz Fanon Lifetime Achievement award His extraordinary philosophical autobiography with an emphasis on Africana existentialism that takes into account issues of racism identity liberation freedom alienation responsibility and bad faith is supplemented by three key essays from his intellectual career representing the extraordinary contribution he has made to Africana philosophy and black existentialism Research Anthology on Navigating School Counseling in the 21st Century Management Association, Information Resources,2021-04-16 School counseling in the 21st century requires a new set of skills and practices than seen in past decades With a sharper focus on social justice the experiences and challenges for marginalized groups and more open discussions as to issues students face school counselors must be best equipped to handle all types of diverse students and situations School counselors and guidance programs must address multicultural needs underserved populations and students with issues ranging from mental illness to family issues to chronic illnesses and LGBTQ identities Moreover they must be prepared to guide students to learning success and adequately prepare them for future careers The challenges students face in the 21st century lead to new ways to prepare support and educate school counselors in modern educational atmospheres with student bodies that are handling vastly different challenges identities and lifestyles School counselors must navigate the profession with information on best practices techniques and 21st century skillsets that can adequately support and help all students The Research Anthology on Navigating School Counseling in the 21st Century provides emerging research on the best practices in school counseling along with methods techniques and professional development initiatives to better understand diverse student populations needs and challenges This book will not only focus on how school counselors must adapt and learn in their own professional careers but also how school counseling is functioning in the 21st century with the new concerns and obstacles students must face and overcome The chapters provide a holistic view of how counselors are navigating their positions to best serve their students through effective practices programs and new tools and technologies This book is ideal for school counselors therapists school psychologists counseling educators administrators practitioners researchers academicians and students who are interested in school counseling in the 21st century African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development Mafukata, Mavhungu Abel,Tshikolomo, Khathutshelo Alfred,2019-11-22 Development studies in developing regions such as Southern Africa rely heavily on materials developed by Europeans with a European context European dominance in development studies emanates from the fact that the discipline was first developed by Europeans Some argue that this has led to distortions in theory and practice of development in Southern Africa This book wishes to begin Africa s expedition to develop proper material to de Westernize while Africanizing the context of the scholarship of rural development African Perspectives on Reshaping Rural Development is an essential reference source that repositions the context of rural development studies from the Western centric knowledge system into an African context in order to solve African centered problems Featuring research on topics such as food security poverty reduction and community engagement this book is ideally designed for planners researchers practitioners policymakers government officials academicians and students seeking clarity on theory and practice of development in Africa A History of African Linguistics H.
