Welcome Speech For A Youth Conference:

The Indian Quarterly Register ,1927 The Indian Annual Register ,1927 Mahathir's Islam Sven

Schottmann,2018-09-30 Mahathir Mohamad's legacy as Malaysia's longest serving prime minister 1981-2003 is deeply controversial. His engagement with Islam, the religion of just over half Malaysia's population, has often been dismissed as partisan maneuvering. Yet his willingness to countenance a more prominent place for Islam in government and society is what distinguished him from other modernist politicians, and his instinct to set Malaysian politics against the backdrop of the wider Muslim world was politically astute. Author Sven Schottmann argues that Mahathir's transformative effect on Malaysia can only be fully appreciated if we also take him seriously as one of the postcolonial Muslim world's most significant political thought leaders. Schottmann sees Mahathir's representations of Islam as a relatively coherent discourse that can legitimately be described as Mahathir's Islam. This discourse contains Mahathir's assessment of the economic, political, and sociocultural problems facing the contemporary Muslim world and the range of solutions and corrective measures that he proposed Muslims should adopt. His ideas are fraught with flaws and contradictions. On the one hand, he emphasized the individualistic, egalitarian, pluralistic, democratic, and dynamic qualities of Islam. On the other, his government enacted legislation and acquiesced in the activities of religious bodies that curtailed religious freedoms of both Muslims and non-Muslims. His ideas contributed to Malaysia's worsening state of interethnic relations, yet his insistence that every Muslim had the right to speak for Islam may have paradoxically prepared the ground for a future democratization of Malaysian politics. Mahathir's Islam is based on rigorous analysis of Mahathir's speeches, interviews, and writings, which the author is able to link to parallel processes elsewhere in the Muslim world: Indonesia, the Middle East, Pakistan, Turkey, and diaspora communities in the West. Mahathir's Islamic discourse, Schottmann suggests, must be read against the wider late twentieth-century resurgence of religion in general and the post-1970s Islamic revival in particular. Balanced in approach and engagingly written, this book will be of interest to scholars and students of political science, religious studies, and others interested in Malaysia, Southeast Asia, or Mahathir himself. Daily Report, Foreign Radio Broadcasts United States. Sarathi is a monthly magazine devoted to Sathya Truth, Dharma, Righteousness, Shanti, Peace, and Prema Love, the four cardinal principles of Bhagawan Baba's philosophy. The word meaning of Sanathana Sarathi is the Eternal Charioteer. It signifies the presence of the Lord in every being as the Atma guiding their lives like a charioteer. It implies that he who places his life, the body being likened to a chariot in an attitude of surrender in the hands of the Lord, will be taken care of by the Lord, even as a charioteer would take the occupant of his chariot safely to

Youth Development in Identity Societies James E. Cote, 2018-10-31 This book explores the causes and consequences of the contradictions in young people s lives stemming from the affluence purpose paradox a lack of purpose in life among many of those living in the most affluent societies in human history This paradox is endemic to identity societies where people experience a choice contingent life course and is examined using an interdisciplinary approach largely with an integration of developmental psychology and sociology but also using historical anthropological economic and political perspectives The transition to adulthood is now commonly a prolonged process with young people facing a number of psychological challenges and sociological obstacles in their identity formation Challenges include difficulties in making prudent choices about goals Obstacles involve cross pressures in the wider society as well as in educational institutions Consequently many youth experience their education as alienating and stressful rather than as an opportunity for personal development Those without a sense of purpose have more difficulties with their identity formation that can produce symptoms of anxiety and depression The current student mental health crisis is examined in this context An additional challenge is an ambiguously defined adulthood Young people who are confused about appropriate adult roles often value hedonistic activities rooted in narcissism and materialism rather than in more fulfilling long term goals Conversely those who are agentic in their personal development can thrive in adulthood especially when they combine agency with generativity This book ends with a series of recommendations for researchers and policy makers to help youth cope with the affluence purpose paradox
