L. Lambert,1949 Educational Bulletin ,1933 The Rise and Fall of Civic Education Michael Learn,2024-09-16 Social studies is a field in crisis The crisis stems from failure to establish the very foundation of social studies purpose in public education civic education Social studies advocates have never put forth a coherent method for teaching civic education because policymakers and the public have been unable to agree upon a general definition of civic education This issue has disrupted the field since the early days As educators sought to include civic education within public schools as a dedicated field social studies evolved into a blending of history social sciences and civic education Social studies evolution never resolved the differences between the three with each discipline striving to control the narrative Instead of creating a unified field the disciplines devalued social studies and thus any discipline associated with it The Rise and Fall of Civic Education The Battle for Social Studies in a Shifting Historical Landscape investigates the changing definitions and purposes ascribed to social studies in the United States through time This result is viewed through the rising tensions from culture wars as America s divisive politics fight to control the narrative of the disciplines within social studies Normal Instructor and Teachers World ,1928 World Geography Richard G Boehm,1995 Texas Edition textbook on World Geography Research Anthology on Environmental and Societal Impacts of Climate Change Management Association, Information Resources,2021-10-29 Climate change is an issue that has been generating a significant amount of discussion research and debate in recent years Climate change continues to evolve at a rapid rate and continues to have a wide array of effects on everything from temperature to plant life Beyond the negative environmental impacts climate change is also proving to be a detriment to society with increasingly violent natural disasters and human health effects It is essential to stay up to date on the latest in emerging research within this field as it continues to develop The Research Anthology on

Environmental and Societal Impacts of Climate Change discusses the varied effects of climate change throughout all areas of life and provides a comprehensive dive into the latest research on key elements of society that are affected by the rapidly increasing climate. Covering a range of topics including reproduction plants and animals and energy demand it is ideal for environmentalists policymakers environmental engineers scientists disaster and crisis management personnel professionals government officials practitioners upper level students and academics interested in emerging research on the numerous impacts of climate change

Voices of Foreign-born African American Teacher Educators in the United States

Festus E. Obiakor, 2010 This is a book that exposes silenced and invisible voices in Colleges Schools of Education These voices of African immigrants are seldom heard in serious educational quarters since most foreign born teacher educators try their very best to play by the rules as immigrant minorities However they find themselves between cultural continuity and cultural discontinuity They are pressured to do well by their families in their native countries but these pressures force them to forget home and think about survival strategies in their new found home Very often they do well and at tremendous costs Additionally they are expected to be happy and endure all kinds of mistreatments with a smile because they seem to have fewer survival options On the one hand they are generally treated as Blacks and as Blacks they encounter racist behaviours On the other hand they are treated as invisible primitive and inferior Blacks who have nothing to share and who are supposed to be seen and not heard As a consequence they endure discrimination from both native born African Americans and Whites in America Interestingly when they are confident they are labelled as arrogant troublemaker foreigner chauvinistic and so on When they are quiet they are labelled as incompetent timid naïve unprepared and so on The tendency is to forget that they are human beings with aspirations to do well and contribute to their new society that is America The critical question then is how can they do well or contribute to the advancement of their new society if they are not given opportunities to learn teach serve or grow
