along with their composers abound The Zeitgeist of popular music in 1993 namely the catapulting alternative rock and grunge scenes also figures significantly into the events that unfold

When I Fell Michael Murphy, 2021-01-05 16 seconds

That's how long it takes to fall two stories That's how long it takes for life to change When Michael Murphy was 21 he fell off a roof at college and landed flat on his back severing his spine They say that nobody understands their own traumatic injury just after it happens but Michael did Every person falls They fall short in school in life in work and in love Their lives sometimes feel punctuated by those downfalls the rejection letters the unrequited love the missed promotions the life altering traumas Everyone falls But then what When I Fell is a true tale of going from abled to disabled to empowered It combines the story surrounding Michael's recovery with the science of resiliency and thriving what psychologists are now calling Posttraumatic Growth PTG to teach readers how to hit home runs when life throws them curves Befitting new mainstream acceptance for disabilities When I Fell is as much a memoir as it is a message It features the five principles established by Drs Tedeschi and Calhoun the pioneers who coined the phrase in the 1990s for scientific validation to bring PTG further into the public eye

How to Innovate Mary Moss Brown, Alisa Berger, 2014-12-04

As the authors state Without rethinking how what when where and why we are teaching technology will merely be an expensive way of making the existing system faster and flashier In How to Innovate Mary Moss Brown and Alisa Berger founding co principals of the NYC iSchool apply their extensive on the ground experience to demonstrate a radically different approach to school transformation They introduce a scalable model of how schools can and should redefine themselves to better meet the needs of 21st century students Using a framework built around four critical levers for school change curriculum culture time and human capital the NYC iSchool model merges the teaching of big ideas and valuable skills with the realities of accountability academic preparation and adolescent development The book includes more than 20 activities that will help educators begin the process of school transformation whether they want to focus on a single program one area of change or engage in a full scale whole school improvement effort This accessible practical and inspiring resource is designed to be used over and over again in any context despite the constantly changing climates in which schools operate Reimagining school and creating more schools like the iSchool must be our highest national priority All students need to graduate from high school and college innovation ready as well as prepared for the complex challenges of continuous learning and citizenship in the 21st century Time is running short I urge you to read this book with urgency

From the Foreword by Tony Wagner expert in residence at the Harvard University Innovation Lab founder and co director of the Change Leadership Group at the Harvard Graduate School of Education Public education mistakenly relies on a 19th century model to teach kids in the 21st century Moss Brown and Berger decided to change this by opening the iSchool in New York City and creating a whole new approach to how schools work They succeeded wildly and having walked the walk they now talk the talk so others can follow on the trail they blazed Joel Klein former Chancellor of the New York City Department of Education 2002-2011 Those who strive to create or transform a school will learn much from the shining example of these two fearless principals As learning contexts change with the rising tides of technology Moss and Berger focus above all on human and intellectual growth in schools Their NYC iSchool offers hope for increasing imagination equity and depth in the face of the gathering storm of standardization Kathleen Cushman co founder of What Kids Can Do and author of The Motivation Equation Moss Brown and Berger launched one of the first schools to blend personalized instruction and community connected engaging projects Anyone interested in a picture of next generation learning and the inside story of creating a great school should read this book Tom Van der Ark CEO of Getting Smart Mary Moss Brown and Alisa Berger are the founding co principals of the NYC iSchool and are currently working as the founding partners in Novare Schools a consulting group that focuses on school leader coaching school design innovation and transformation
