World Bank Report On Infrastructure:

Rural Infrastructure from a World Bank Perspective Louis Y. Pouliquen, 1999 Rural infrastructure is critical to both economic and social development Its absence thwarts growth and typically the poor are those hurt the most The purpose of this paper is to serve as a basis for knowledge management on rural infrastructure In the 1970s the primary if not the unique objective of rural infrastructure lending was to get rural infrastructure built However the institutional aspects of how this infrastructure was to be built and later how it would be operated and maintained did not receive much attention Only recently has poverty alleviation through employment creation become an explicit objective of rural infrastructure investments This review tracks the poverty alleviation objective of rural infrastructure projects using three criteria 1 whether poverty was an explicit criterion in the selection of specific sub projects 2 whether poverty was addressed in the pricing of rural infrastructure services and 3 whether poverty was addressed through the creation of employment International Benchmarking of Infrastructure Performance in the Southern African Customs Union Countries [eljko Bogeti?, Johannes W. Fedderke, 2006 The paper provides a first systematic benchmarking of infrastructure performance in the Southern African Customs Union SACU countries South Africa Botswana Lesotho Namibia and Swaziland in four major sectors electricity water and sanitation information and communication technology and transportation against the relevant group of comparator countries using a new World Bank international data base with objective and perception based indicators of infrastructure performance from over 200 countries The analysis suggests important comparative gaps in all major infrastructure sectors although performance varies widely across the SACU region Performance shortfalls are particularly acute in rural areas where most of the poor live The benchmarking is envisaged as a comparative input into deeper analyses of infrastructure performance especially in the context of the ongoing scaling up efforts for example South Africa Lesotho and Botswana

Infrastructure and Poverty in Viet Nam Dominique Van de Walle, World Bank, 1996 In 1992 the World Bank launched the Africa s Management in the 1990s research program a comprehensive study of the issues of institutional capacity building in Sub Saharan Africa and its effects on economic and social development This report focuses on the program and on how to implement its main message institutions must be both rooted in the local context and culture and open to outside challenges and influences Chapters focus on the institutional aspects of capacity building best practices in public administration indigenous private sector development and a framework for reconciliation between institutions Urban Infrastructure and Governance G Ramesh, Vishnu Prasad Nagadevara, Gopal Naik, Anil Suraj, 2020-11-29 The book contains a selection of papers on urban governance in its multiple perspectives It has evolved from the presentations made at the Third International Conference on Public Policy and Management held in 2008 The topics are grouped into several themes Urban Plan and Governance Urban Governance through Partnership and Participation and Financing Urban Infrastructure With several examples from developing nations the book dwells into the practical and managerial aspects of urban planning partnerships participation financial mobilization and effective governance One of the highlights of the book is that it looks at financial mobilization as a strategy for governance and how the financial system in itself can be an instrument of governance

A "Research" Database on Infrastructure Economic Performance , Infrastructure Services in Developing Countries Cecilia Briceño-Garmendia, Antonio Estache, 2004 Briceño Estache and Shafik review the evidence on the state of infrastructure in the developing world emphasizing the investment needs and the emerging policy issues While their assessment is seriously constrained by data gaps they provide useful insights on the main challenges ahead emphasizing that in addition to the widely discussed access problems the poorest also face major affordability and service quality issues which were not well addressed by the reforms of the 1990s The authors make a case for a stronger commitment of the international community to generate the information needed to assess and monitor infrastructure needs and policies This paper a product of the Office of the Vice President Infrastructure Network is part of a larger effort in the network to upgrade economic and policy work in infrastructure World Bank web site Infrastructure Financing In Asia Bambang Susantono, Donghyun Park, Shu Tian, 2019-11-19 First the book documents the evolution of Asia's infrastructure over the past half century and reviews existing literature on the role of infrastructure investment in supporting growth and social development It highlights the positive impact of mass transit investments on land and property values and the possibility of taxing the increase in values to finance these investments It then examines Asia's current practices and new solutions that can help meet the infrastructure gap It discusses the role of institutions how innovation can foster energy infrastructure investments and the role of bond markets in infrastructure investments The book explores ASEAN 3 efforts in developing local currency bond markets to provide long term local financing for infrastructure investment while providing financial resilience It also examines the use of green bonds to finance sustainable growth in Asia The State and the Private Sector in Latin America M. Font, 2015-06-16 This book follows ten political economic histories since the 1970s showing how different forms of partnership have developed flourished or declined over the time The author's argument is supported by rich empirical material It places partnership schemes in a broader social context and provides a deep insight into the phenomenon The Routledge Handbook of Infrastructure Finance Joshua Yindenaba Abor, John Macomber, Thankom Arun, Victor Murinde, 2025-08-06 This handbook provides a comprehensive overview of infrastructure financing from a global perspective It offers an extensive examination of infrastructure financing worldwide It encompasses a wide range of subjects concerning infrastructure finance including different project types financing options and the functions performed by public and private sector entities in financing and overseeing infrastructure initiatives Given that infrastructure investment is crucial to socio economic growth and development it has become a critical policy priority for governments investors and other stakeholders around the world It is intended for a wide range of readers interested in infrastructure finance including academics researchers students policymakers and practitioners The handbook offers an in depth and interdisciplinary overview of infrastructure finance covering topics such as project finance public private partnerships PPPs institutional investors risk management sustainability and regulation As a result the book is relevant to those studying or working in fields such as project and infrastructure finance finance development finance accounting economics public policy real estate and sustainability The global perspective of this book also makes it valuable for those interested in the unique challenges and opportunities associated with infrastructure finance in different regions of the world Overall The Routledge Handbook of Infrastructure Finance serves as a valuable resource for anyone seeking to deepen their knowledge and understanding of infrastructure finance in today s complex and rapidly changing global economy Financing the Future Chris

Humphrey,2023-01-09 Financing the Future explains how the unique governance arrangements and financial models of multilateral development banks shape their behavior and uses that framework to show how different sets of Multilateral Development Banks MDBs are grappling with the challenges of the 21st century Public Infrastructure Performance in Developing Countries Abdul Ghafoor,2024-11-01 This title was first published in 2000 An investigation of the performance of the electric power and telecommunication sectors of Pakistan at the firm level as well as the sector as a whole seeking to identify and quantify the extent of inefficiencies Since physical or financial or productivity indicators alone are not able to explain the duality of public infrastructure purposes the financial and productivity indicators have been used in evaluating the performance of these sectors Further a Cobb Douglas production function has also been used to calculate the trend in the growth of total factor productivity Economies of scale have also been studied in the case of electric power generation The results of the study show that in Pakistan one of the usual motives for privatization to avoid the poor financial results of state enterprises is not relevant for electricity and telecommunications enterprises This however appears to be due to the financial subsidies they received through access to low cost loan finance and grants rather than to their efficiency in operations By the economic criteria of growth of TFP none of the enterprises do well and two have a negative TFP growth The case for reforming these enterprises is strong and alternative modes of organization finance and ownership need to be considered

Development Economics Julie Schaffner,2013-10-07 Development Economics Theory Empirical Research and Policy Analysis by Julie Schaffner teaches students to think about development in a way that is disciplined by economic theory informed by cutting edge empirical research and connected in a practical way to contemporary development efforts It lays out a framework for the study of developing economies that is built on microeconomic foundations and that highlights the importance in development studies of transaction and transportation costs risk information problems institutional rules and norms and insights from behavioral economics It then presents a systematic approach to policy analysis and applies the approach to policies from around the world in the areas of targeted transfers workfare agricultural markets infrastructure education agricultural technology microfinance and health Privatization and Alternative Public Sector Reform in

Saharan Africa has failed This book shows that the state is set to dominate service delivery for the foreseeable future in much of the region and that the public sector must be considered as a viable policy option for the delivery of water and electricity

A Decade of Action in Transport, 2007-01-01 The World Bank committed 30 6 billion in transport related projects during the past decade making it one of the largest sectors The evaluation looks into the Bank s experience in the sector and assesses the institution s interventions the impact of rapid transport sector expansion and its readiness to meet the challenges ahead The World Bank Research Program 2001 World Bank, World Bank Staff, 2001-01-01 This publication is a compilation of reports on research projects initiated under way or completed in fiscal year 2001 July 1 2000 through June 30 2001 The abstracts cover 150 research projects from the World Bank and grouped under 11 major headings including poverty and social development health and population education labor and employment environment infrastructure and urban development and agriculture and rural development The abstracts detail the questions addressed the analytical methods used the findings to date and their policy implications Each abstract identifies the expected completion date of each project the research team and reports or publications produced

Infrastructure and the Complexity of Economic Development David F. Batten, Charlie Karlsson, 2012-12-06 The book examines the complex relationships between infrastructure and the rest of the economy In particular it focuses on the contentious issue of whether infrastructure investments stimulate productivity growth issues of pricing and ownership and also development problems such as environmental damage Methods range from traditional production function models and compensating variation approaches to nonlinear methods of dynamic analysis There is a unique emphasis on the ability of these different methods to allow for the complex interdependencies involved Six of the fifteen papers deal with these methodological aspects whereas the remainder addresses specific cases or examples in a variety of countries Europe USA and developing countries

Transboundary Waters, Infrastructure Development and Public Private Partnership Richard Kyle Paisley, Riley T. Denoon, Theresa Etmanski, Patrick Weiler, 2017-11-06 Public Private Partnerships PPPs have increasingly emerged as a valuable mechanism for drawing in investment and expertise from the private sector to meet public infrastructure needs PPPs involving transboundary international waters require particular attention given their huge potential for social and environmental impact Transboundary Waters Infrastructure Development and Public Private Partnership examines what PPPs are and how they function in the context of transboundary waters It explains how environmental and social safeguards operate in relation to PPPs and transboundary waters in light of the Nam Theun 2 and the Xayaburi Hydroelectric Power projects in Laos PDR Finally it draws important lessons from their contractual arrangements costs financing and risk mitigation that are relevant to PPPs in other transboundary waters matters
