

1821	Mexico offers land grants to anyone bringing settlers to Texas.
1823
1824
1835	The Texas Revolution is led by Texans eager to gain independence from Mexico.
1836	The Republic of Texas is founded.
1838	Sam Houston invites the United States to annex the new republic.
1845	Texas becomes the twenty-eighth state of the Union.

Explain why these historical figures played a major role during this time period

Why did Mexico want Americans to settle in Texas? To stop border violations by horse thieves and to protect the territory from Native American attacks

Why Did Americans want to settle in Texas?
Because of the cheap land grants that Mexico offered and their determination to move west.

What brought American settlers into conflict with the Mexican government?
Mexico put taxes on the importation of Americans into Texas. (cultural differences)

What happened at the Alamo?
Americans in the Alamo were attacked Santa Anna and his troops who killed all 187 of the Americans. (San Jacinto)

Why was the United states at first reluctant to annex Texas?
They believed that Texas would turn into a slave state and would ruin the balance of slave states and no slave states. (fear of war with Mexico)

Stephen F. Austin: led many of the first groups of American settlers to a fertile area along the Brazos River. (issuing many land grants to Americans)

(Antonio)Lopez de Santa Anna: Mexican president who believed that he was the Napoleon of the west, was president for 34 years. (lead the army against U.S defenders in Alamo) (defeated in the Battle of San Jacinto)

Those Who Have Borne the Battle James Wright, 2012-05-01 At the heart of the story of America s wars are our citizen soldiers those hometown heroes who fought and sacrificed from Bunker Hill at Charlestown to Pointe du Hoc in Normandy and beyond without expectation of recognition or recompense Americans like to think that the service of its citizen volunteers is and always has been of momentous importance in our politics and society But though this has made for good storytelling the reality of America's relationship to its veterans is far more complex In Those Who Have Borne the Battle historian and marine veteran James Wright tells the story of the long often troubled relationship between America and those who have defended her from the Revolutionary War to today shedding new light both on our history and on the issues our country and its armed forces face today From the beginning American gratitude to its warriors was not a given Prior to World War II the prevailing view was that as citizen soldiers the service of its young men was the price of citizenship in a free society Even Revolutionary War veterans were affectionately but only temporarily embraced as the new nation and its citizens had much else to do In time the celebration of the nation's heroes became an important part of our culture building to the response to World War II where warriors were celebrated and new government programs provided support for veterans The greater transformation came in the wars after World War II as the way we mobilize for war fight our wars and honor those who serve has changed in drastic and troubling ways Unclear and changing military objectives have made our actions harder for civilians to stand behind a situation compounded by the fact that the armed forces have become less representative of American society as a whole Few citizens join in the sacrifice that war demands The support systems seem less and less capable of handling the increasing number of wounded warriors returning from our numerous and bewildering conflicts abroad A masterful work of history Those Who Have Borne the Battle expertly relates the burdens carried by veterans dating back to the Revolution as well as those fighting today's wars And it challenges Americans to do better for those who serve and sacrifice today
