

Period 6: 1865 - 1898

Chapter 19: Politics of the Gilded Age, 1877-1900 [388 - 391]

Due Date: TUESDAY, JANUARY 30

Politics in the Gilded Age

- Gilded Age: superficial glitter of the new wealth displayed late 1800s; criticism of politics; era of "forgettable" presidents and politicians who largely ignored arising problems from growth of industry and cities
- Causes of Stalemate
 - Complacency and conservatism caused by the prevailing political ideology of the time, campaign tactics of the two parties, and party patronage
 - Belief in Limited Government
 - Idea of "do-little" gov in line w/ ideas of laissez-faire economics and Social Darwinism
 - Limited impact of few regulatory laws passed by congress on gov's powers to regulate business in federal courts
 - Campaign Strategy
 - Closeness of elections, 1876-1892 one reason that Republicans and Democrats avoided taking strong positions on issues
 - Democrats controlled the House of Reps. after 8/10 general elections
 - Divided gov in Washington (except for years of Harrison, 1889-1891 when Republicans in control of presidency and both houses of congress)
 - Un-evenly matched elections: goal to not alienate voters on issues to win the vote
 - Election campaigns used advertising and people-pleasing techniques (buttons, flags...)
 - Republicans strong organizations on state level, Democrats in cities
 - ~80% voter turnout
 - High turnout b/c strong party identification and loyalty plus regional, religious, and ethnic ties of voters
 - Republicans
 - Wore the "bloody shirt" during campaign remembering civil war that Democrats caused
 - Party of Lincoln kept voters of reformers and Af Am
 - Men in business; middle-class; Anglo-Saxon Protestants
 - Supported pro-business economic program of high protective tariffs
 - Supported temperance or prohibition
 - Democrats
 - South solidly Democratic until mid-1890s
 - In North, strength came from big-city political machines and the immigrant vote
 - Catholics, Lutherans, and Jews who objected to temperance and prohibition crusades by Protestant groups
 - States' rights and limiting powers for the federal gov
 - Party Patronage
 - Politics chiefly game of winning elections, holding office, and providing gov jobs
 - No active legislative agenda
 - Corrupt and supporters known as Stalwarts; rivals were the Half-Breeds led by James O. Blaine; patronage jobs within party more important issue than policies
 - Republicans not in the patronage game ridiculed as the Mugwumps for sitting on fence
 - Considered low point in US politics
- Presidential Politics
