Simpson,2018-11-29 The Modern Stephen King Canon Beyond Horror is a collection of essays focused on the more recent writings of Stephen King including Revival 11 22 63 and a selection of short stories by the Master of the Macabre The authors write about King works that have received little critical attention and aim to open up doorways of analysis and insight that will help readers gain a stronger appreciation for the depth and detail within King s fiction Indeed while King is often relegated to the role of a genre writer horror the essays in this collection consider the merits of King s writing beyond the basics of horror for which he is primarily known Recommended for scholars of literature horror and popular culture Humor Herbert M. Lefcourt,2012-12-06 In his earlier work the author has studied stress and the personality characteristics that protect us from its effects on health and well being In this new book he places humor firmly within the literatures of coping processes the moderation of stressful experiences and health by showing how humor can help create and encourage feelings of community closeness and control Lefcourt blends empirical research with anecdotal reports in this thoughtful volume A Novel Approach to Theatre Linda Sarver,Tom Markus,1997 Contains over 600 entries describing novels that have theatrical settings or in which characters work in the theatre The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich,2006-01-01 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan s hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy s social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel s narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions Animals and Nature Rod Preece,2011-11-01 No one tradition alone offers a sufficient respect for other species Taken together they may offer a prospect for saner human animal relations From the book Western conceptions of objectivity and individuality have resulted in a readier appreciation of the worth of the animals and nature than has been recognized This provocative book takes issue with the popular view that the Western cultural tradition in contrast to Eastern and Aboriginal traditions has encouraged attitudes of domination and exploitation towards nature particularly animals Preece argues that the Western tradition has much to commend it and that descriptions of Aboriginal and Oriental orientations have often been misleadingly rosy simplified and codified according to current fashionable concepts Animals and Nature is the result of six years intensive study into comparative religion literature philosophy anthropology mythology and animal welfare science The Penguin Modern Classics Book Henry Eliot,2021-11-18 The essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world For six decades the Penguin Modern Classics series has been an era defining ever evolving series of books encompassing works by modernist pioneers avant garde iconoclasts radical visionaries and timeless storytellers This reader s companion showcases every title published in the series so far with more than 1 800 books and 600 authors from Achebe and Adonis to Zamyatin and Zweig It is the essential guide to twentieth century literature around the world and the companion volume to The Penguin Classics Book Bursting with lively descriptions surprising reading lists key literary movements and over two thousand cover images The Penguin Modern Classics Book is an invitation to dive in and explore the greatest literature of the last hundred years Wrestling with Angels Rowan William,2007-10-26

Wrestling with Angels gathers writings by Rowan Williams spanning the years 1980 2000 It focuses on his engagement with a range of modern theologians and philosophers Hegel Wittgenstein Barth Bonhoeffer Balthasar Simone Weil Marilyn McCord Adams and more Key themes explored in this volume include negative theology postmodernity violence innocence divine action and the nature of historical development in theology From publisher s description Aspects of Robertson Davies' Novels Victor J. Lams,2009 Completing the survey begun in Lams Cornish Trilogy volume Aspects of Robertson Davies Novels discusses the Salterton and Deptford trilogies along with Davies last two novels Murther it is best understood as an implicit spiritual history of Canada which is adumbrated in the generational experience of a single Canadian family The Cunning Man concludes Davies career with a narrative as rewardingly complex as any of the Cornish trilogy novels

Unlikely Muse Daniel Kornstein,2010 This trail blazing book explores previously uncharted aspects of law and literature as well as the psychology paradoxes and wonderful mystery of creativity A study of artistic inspiration Unlikely Muse examines and analyzes the lives and works of three very different writers who combine law literature and imagination nineteenth century French novelist Honor de Balzac modernist American poet Wallace Stevens and controversial playwright memoirist Lillian Hellman From the literary careers of those three writers emerge two intertwined and exciting new themes The first theme demonstrates unexpected synergy between law and literature Opening original lines of inquiry Unlikely Muse probes the possible relationship between legal training and artistic creativity A surprisingly large number of great creative artists writers such as Balzac poets such as Stevens painters such as Matisse and composers such as Tchaikovsky studied or practiced law This book asks whether such people became great creative artists because of or despite their legal background Others such as Hellman had no legal training but wrote much about the law This book sketches the intellectual atmosphere and biographical background that shaped these three writers creative process highlighting the impact of the law on their work The second theme uses these same three writers to focus on the changing role of imagination in literature From Balzac through Stevens to Hellman and beyond the author traces imagination s arc from a positive artistic quality to something that is sometimes more controversial perhaps deceitful and negative In the last few decades ever since Hellman s memoirs were attacked as untrue journalists memoirists and other writers have palmed off works of fiction as non fiction often causing literary scandals This book offers a new theory why this phenomenon is happening and how it should be regarded

Peripheral Fear Gerry Turcotte,2009 This is a pioneering work published here for the first time in its complete form At a time when Gothic studies still concentrated on traditional European and American Gothic the author laid the foundations for the exploration of how Gothic conventions were transported and transformed in places remote from Europe Through a detailed reading of 19th and 20th century examples of Canadian and Australian Gothic fiction this work demonstrates the transformative potential of a once much maligned mode in what were arguably neglected national literatures
