Global Queens Joseph Heathcott, 2023-10-03 Winner The David R Coffin Publication Grant A vibrant exploration of the everyday life of one of the most diverse places in the world Queens New York Remade by decades of immigration Queens New York has emerged as an emblematic space of social mixing and encounters across multiple lines of difference With its expansive subdivisions tangled highways and centerless form it is also New York's most enigmatic borough It can feel alternately like a big city a tight knit village a featureless industrial zone or a sprawling suburban community Through more than 200 contemporary photographs Joseph Heathcott captures this multifaceted borough and one of the most diverse places in the United States Drawn from more than a decade of roaming around Queens and snapping photos Heathcott conveys the juxtaposition of the ordinary and the extraordinary the mundane and the surprising and the staggering social diversity that best characterizes Queens At the heart of the story are two separate but entwined histories the rapid expansion of the borough's built environment through the twentieth century and the millions of people who have traveled from near and far to call Queens home Newcomers have had to confront discrimination white racial hostility legal challenges and language barriers They have had to struggle to find adequate housing places to worship and jobs that pay enough to survive And they have done all of this in the borough's jumbled collection of neighborhoods housing types civic and religious institutions factories and warehouses commercial streets and strip malls Heathcott makes primary use of documentary photography to bring these social and spatial realities of everyday life into relief He also draws on demographic data archival sources planning documents news stories and reports The result is a visual meditation on Queens that provides clues about an urban future where notions of citizenship and belonging are negotiated across multiple lines of difference but where a sense of getting along however roughly textured and unfinished has taken hold in the everyday life of the streets

Interpreting Islam Hastings Donnan, 2002-02-15 Islam is one of the most misunderstood concepts in the West Myths and stereotypes surround it This clear and penetrating volume helps readers to make sense of Islam It offers a penetrating guide to the diversity and richness of contemporary knowledge about Islam and Muslim society Throughout the emphasis is upon the value of pluralistic approaches to Islam rather than condensing complexity with unifying concepts such as Orientalism Interdisciplinary in scope and organization the book cuts through the bewildering and seemingly anarchic diversity of contemporary knowledge about Islam and Muslim society The methodological difficulties and advantages of Western researchers focusing on Islam are fully documented The book demonstrates how gender age status and insider outsider status impacts upon research and inflects research findings

Reading and Writing in the Global Workplace Beatrice Quarshie Smith, 2012-06-14

Reading and Writing in the Global Workplace Gender Literacy and Outsourcing in Ghana by Beatrice Quarshie Smith explores the conditions that underlie the outsourcing of US data processing work in Ghana Here Beatrice Quarshie Smith describes the convergence and interplay of at least four different socio economic forces 1 the digital and satellite technology enabling virtual environments for global outsourced data processing 2 the historical development of Ghana as a politically stable Anglophone society with a relatively strong tradition of public education 3 the neoliberal economic restructuring policies advanced by the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund and 4 the ready availability of women seeking to enter the formal wage economy either to seek independence from their roles within traditional families or in order to support their families The author s comparative study of two distinctly different workplaces reveals significant insights about problems of organizational hierarchy and management employee relations in the cross cultural environments of out sourced business and IT process work Through extensive interviews the book sheds light on the educational backgrounds day to day struggles fears and aspirations of the workers Quarshie Smith develops this multi faceted analysis with keen insights into the representational limitations and ethical responsibilities of the researcher This pioneering study about outsourced data processing work in West Africa opens up a new area for research and offers a fresh perspective from which to consider outsourcing in other regions of the globe

World Cultures Global Mosaic Study Guide: Bestsellers in 2023 The year 2023 has witnessed a remarkable surge in literary brilliance, with numerous engrossing novels enthraling the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of top-selling books, exploring the engaging narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover masterfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can succeed. World Cultures Global Mosaic Study Guide : Taylor Jenkins Reids "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reids captivating storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Discover the Magic : Delia Owens "Where the Crawdads Sing" This evocative coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens crafts a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These popular novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and suspenseful novel that will keep you speculating until the very end. The novel is a cautionary tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
