discussions as well as advice for department chairs on curriculum management student advising and more In today's technological society online courses are quickly becoming the new normal in terms of collegiate instruction providing the ideal environment to flip the classroom and encourage students to hone critical thinking skills by engaging deeply with historical sources While much of the attention in online teaching focuses on STEM business and education courses online history courses have also proven consistently popular However due to the COVID 19 pandemic new history instructors are rushed into online teaching with little or no training or experience creating a need for a guide to ease the transition from classroom to online course development and teaching A timely text this book aims to provide both new and experienced college history teachers the information they need to develop dynamic online courses 2012-2013 UNCG Graduate

Crawford, 2024-05-17 Museum Studies for a Post Pandemic World demonstrates that digital literacy creativity and resilience as the COVID 19 pandemic has so vividly illustrated are now vital components of the classroom and of the curator's toolbox Museum studies students are increasingly asked to engage with new team dynamics and collaborative models often relocated to the virtual world Authored by academics cultural heritage partners students and alumni the chapters in this volume move beyond a consideration of the impact of digitisation to envision new strategies and pedagogies for fuller more sustainable approaches to cultural literacy exhibition and visitor engagement International case studies present models of collaborative practices between teams of diverse sizes and professional backgrounds The volume demonstrates that the COVID 19 pandemic has forced the use of a variety of pedagogically and culturally significant hybrid and virtual models that provide innovative learning modalities to meet the needs of future generations of digital native patrons This book offers meaningful strategies that will help academic and cultural heritage institutions engaged in museum studies to survive and even thrive in the face of future disasters by expanding programme accessibility beyond the physical confines of their buildings Museum Studies for a Post Pandemic World will be of interest to students and researchers engaged in the study of museums the arts cultural management and education It should also be of interest to museum practitioners around the world The Alcalde, 1999-09 As the magazine of the Texas Exes The Alcalde has united alumni and friends of The University of Texas at Austin for nearly 100 years The Alcalde serves as an intellectual crossroads where UT's luminaries artists engineers executives musicians attorneys journalists lawmakers and professors among them meet bimonthly to exchange ideas Its pages also offer a place for Texas Exes to swap stories and share memories of Austin and their alma mater The magazine's unique name is Spanish for mayor or chief magistrate the nickname of the governor who signed UT into existence was The Old Alcalde
