

So, how are clouds made?

The shape begins to form when that is made of circles and following that lead, our clouds won't be constructed with the same process.

Circles make up the cloud the circles are like and placement and shape for more like a circle... cloudish.

Circles give a fluffy feel Don't use an object to construct a cloud as the fluffy round and circle and the air flow.

Note: The question asks what we can do to make our cloud look like a Skype logo. The answer is to use circles to create a fluffy, cloud-like shape.

Seriously though, it should still look like a cloud... or at least, cloudish.

It's not that difficult, but it takes you to make what you're getting to be from your imagination of a good cloud and what it looks like.
