The Movement Insurrection:

Unarmed Insurrections Kurt Schock, 2005 In the last two decades of the twentieth century a wave of people power movements erupted throughout the nondemocratic world In South Africa the Philippines Nepal Thailand Burma Myanmar China and elsewhere mass protest demonstrations strikes boycotts civil disobedience and other nonviolent actions were brought to bear on a rigid political status quo Kurt Schock compares the successes of the antiapartheid movement in South Africa the people power movement in the Philippines the pro democracy movement in Nepal and the antimilitary movement in Thailand with the failures of the pro democracy movement in China and the anti regime challenge in Burma Schock develops a synthetic framework that allows him to identify which characteristics increase the resilience of a challenge to state repression and which aspects of a state s relations can be exploited by such a challenge By looking at how these methods of protest promoted regime change in some countries but not in others this book provides rare insight into the often overlooked and little understood power of nonviolent action

Media Spectacle and Insurrection, 2011 Douglas Kellner, 2012-11-02 Douglas Kellner elaborates upon his well known theory which explores how media spectacle can be used as a key to interpreting contemporary culture and politics Grounded in both cultural and communication theory Kellner argues that politics war news and information media events like terrorist attacks or royal weddings and now democratic uprisings are currently organized around media spectacles and demonstrates how and why this has occurred Rooting the discussions within key events of 2011 including the war in Libya the Arab Uprisings the wedding of William Windsor to Kate Middleton the killing of Osama bin Laden and the Occupy movements Media Spectacle and Insurrection 2011 makes a highly relevant contribution to the field of media and communication studies It offers a fresh perspective on the theme of contemporary media spectacle and politics by adopting an approach that is based around critical social and cultural theory This series gives students a strong critical grounding from which to examine new media

Women and the Cuban Insurrection Lorraine Bayard de Volo, 2018-02-01 Using gender analysis and focusing on previously unexamined testimonies of women rebels political scientist Lorraine Bayard de Volo shatters the prevailing masculine narrative of the Cuban Revolution Contrary to the Cuban War story's mythology of an insurrection single handedly won by bearded guerrillas Bayard de Volo shows that revolutions are not won and lost only by bullets and battlefield heroics Focusing on women's multiple forms of participation in the insurrection especially those that occurred off the battlefield such as smuggling messages hiding weapons and distributing propaganda Bayard de Volo explores how gender both masculinity and femininity were deployed as tactics in the important though largely unexamined battle for the hearts and minds of the Cuban people Drawing on extensive rarely examined archives including interviews and oral histories this author offers an entirely new interpretation of one of the Cold War's most significant events
