Planning for Power Advertising Anand Halve, 2005-11-05 This book is a sound and comprehensive introduction to advertising planning and branding. Intended for students of and beginners in advertising and marketing, it discusses key issues and market realities many of which are ignored and neglected in developing markets. The structure of this book follows a stepwise process which starts from the beginning of the advertising planning process to the end product which is the creative brief. Each chapter discusses a conceptual principle which is illustrated by relevant examples. Some key issues discussed in this book are planning for communication in a context, Segmentation, studying and understanding the dimensions, demographics and psychographics of the target group, Differentiators and Motivators, discovering what can change the consumers' mind, managing a brand over time, looking at the entire life cycle of a brand. Each chapter ends with an Action Point which helps the reader to apply the principles discussed through an exercise. Motoring World Delhi

Managing Innovation and New Product Development CHATURVEDI, MUKESH, KUMAR, ASEEM, RAHUL, MANMOHAN, 2009-04-13 Innovation is the key to success in any business and is the only way to surpass competition. An innovative concept can lead to the development of a new product. This comprehensive book explains how an innovative idea or a concept if executed properly can create the best product in the market. The book presents a framework for a new product development, laying emphasis on generic concepts and processes which are useful and profitable for small and large organizations including the multinationals. The book highlights the innovation theories that are helping service sector companies to prosper and excel in their fields. It also provides a mathematical formula for students to calculate sales estimation of first time sales of a new product. The Ten Case Studies on real life products from the Indian market enrich the text and enable students to fully understand innovative techniques that help increase the potential and market value of an established product. Key Features: Gives a number of examples to illustrate the concepts discussed in the text. Incorporates several illustrative figures, tables and boxes to make the learning process more accessible. Provides well graded chapter end exercises to test students.
