Patricia Langstrom Doctoral Fellow from Monmouth University studying to be a forensic Anthropologist and Archeologist was barely five foot tall Her long red hair was in a ponytail and her small frame was fit after years of running exercising and making ready to embark on a career of archeological anthropological digs in far away exotic locations When her fianc e died in Afghanistan at the hands of the Taliban and she finally reined in the emotions of her loss she found the subject for her final dissertation Somewhere in the Buriram Province a 300 meter long Reclining Buddha sat waiting to be found The last text she d gotten from Neal said he was looking at something there that she would really be interested in He also began to tell her something else when the text abruptly ended She finally had everything in hand and the team was formed Just after they arrived at the site and she found an anomaly inside one of the ancient cloisters used by the monks centuries ago Taliban attacked and killed everyone but her After finding her way into the darkness and being essentially buried alive she found what many had been looking for Dead tired from running hiding and with the adrenaline of the moment finally draining from her small body she laid down to sleep before beginning her investigation of the site as well as seeing if there was some way to extricate herself from the darkness of the massive chamber She woke outside close to a road that had been destroyed in an avalanche At the other end of the road was an ancient citadel Skeletons lay everywhere the main citadel all but destroyed and the defenders left to rot She found a book that told most of the story but her mind wanted more All she wanted was to return to the cavern make her investigation and find her way home but this possible medieval structure set as far as she knew in Afghanistan piqued her curiosity She wasn t aware that she had been whisked to another world and another time Once she was made aware of the facts she was offered a choice Return home make her dissertation and live without knowing why the citadel was in ruins Or stay in this world travel back in time find the clues to what happened here centuries before and find a way to stop it She made her choice

Bear to return to his land of birth to Siluria and there seek out the last living souls of his mother's people those who survive from their battles against Arthur's father Uthyr Pendragon Yet going home causes even more troubles for both Arthur and Bedwyr to overcome troubles that charge the two young warriors into the sinister hearts of traitors whose rebellion forces the Fox and the Bear to become more than warriors but killers

The Complete Works of C. H. Spurgeon, Volume 2 Spurgeon, Charles, 2015-02-23 Volume 2 Sermons 54 106 Charles Spurgeon 19 June 1834 31 January 1892 is one of the church's most famous preachers and Christianity's foremost prolific writers Called the Prince of Preachers he was one of England's most notable ministers for most of the second half of the nineteenth century and he still remains highly influential among Christians of different denominations today His sermons have spread all over the world and his many printed works have been cherished classics for decades In his lifetime Spurgeon preached to more than 10 million people often up to ten times each week He was the pastor of the congregation of the New Park Street Chapel later the Metropolitan Tabernacle in London for 38 years He was an inexhaustible author of various kinds of works including sermons commentaries an autobiography as well as books on prayer devotionals magazines poetry hymns and more Spurgeon was known to produce powerful sermons of penetrating thought and divine inspiration and his oratory and writing skills held his audiences spellbound Many Christians have discovered Spurgeon's messages to be among the best in Christian literature Edward Walford wrote in Old and New London Volume 6 1878 quoting an article from the Times regarding one of Spurgeon's meetings at Surrey Fancy a congregation consisting of 10 000 souls streaming into the hall mounting the galleries humming buzzing and swarming a mighty hive of bees eager to secure at first the best places and at last any place at all After waiting more than half an hour for if you wish to have a seat you must be there at least that space of time in advance Mr Spurgeon ascended his tribune To the hum and rush and trampling of men succeeded a low concentrated thrill and murmur of devotion which seemed to run at once like an electric current through the breast of every one present and by this magnetic chain the preacher held us fast bound for about two hours It is not my purpose to give a summary of his discourse It is enough to say of his voice that its power and volume are sufficient to reach every one in that vast assembly of his language that it is neither high flown nor homely of his style that it is at times familiar at times declamatory but always happy and often eloquent of his doctrine that neither the Calvinist nor the Baptist appears in the forefront of the battle which is waged by Mr Spurgeon with relentless animosity and with Gospel weapons against irreligion cant hypocrisy pride and those secret bosom sins which so easily beset a man in daily life and to sum up all in a word it is enough to say of the man himself that he impresses you with a perfect conviction of his sincerity More than a hundred years after his death Charles Spurgeon's legacy continues to effectively inspire the church around the world For this reason Delmarva Publications has chosen to publish the complete works of Charles Spurgeon
