Altschuler,Jaclyn Schildkraut,2019-10-16 Lights Camera Execution Cinematic Portrayals of Capital Punishment fills a prominent void in the existing film studies and death penalty literature Each chapter focuses on a particular cinematic portrayal of the death penalty in the United States Some of the analyzed films are well known Hollywood blockbusters such as Dead Man Walking 1995 others are more obscure such as the made for television movie Murder in Coweta County 1983 By contrasting different portrayals where appropriate and identifying themes common to many of the studied films such as the concept of dignity and the role of race and racial discrimination the volume strengthens the reader s ability to engage in comparative analysis of topics stories and cinematic techniques Written by three professors with extensive experience teaching and writing about the death penalty film studies and criminal justice Lights Camera Execution is deliberately designed for both classroom use and general readership

The Drop Dead Funny '70s Dan Lalande,2023-08-17 This work offers a critical examination of 130 commercially released film comedies of the 1970s It considers the socio political circumstances of each year of the decade then critiques each film released that year with a focus on its effect on the film industry and the art of big screen comedy as well as the emergence of talents whose work influenced or was influenced by the zeitgeist of the decade Covering popular titles like M A S H Blazing Saddles American Graffiti The Bad News Bears Smokey and the Bandit and many more it argues that the 1970s may rightly be considered the last golden age of film comedy The New Testament W. R.

Telford,2014-01-09 The New Testament writings are the foundational documents of early Christianity But to fully understand them we need a broad historical awareness of the wider social economic political and religious context that produced them Exploring the transition from an oral to a written tradition this fascinating primer depicts the growth of the early church amid the Roman and Hellenistic Empires Focusing on the composition and content of the Synoptic Gospels those of Matthew Mark and Luke W R Telford furnishes the reader with an appreciation of the methods contemporary scholars apply to the Gospels and also offers an assured in depth guide to the texts themselves Broaching difficult questions about the differing accounts of Jesus life that the New Testament has left us this is an invaluable starting point for anyone looking to understand the roots of Christianity Old Age Michael Kinsley,2016-04-26 Vanity Fair columnist Michael Kinsley escorts his fellow Boomers through the door marked Exit The notorious baby boomers the largest age cohort in history are approaching the end and starting to plan their final moves in the game of life Now they are asking What was that all about Was it about acquiring things or changing the world Was it about keeping all your marbles Or is the only thing that counts after you re gone the reputation you leave behind In this series of essays Michael Kinsley uses his own battle with Parkinson s disease to unearth answers to questions we are all at some time forced to confront Sometimes he writes I feel like a scout from my generation sent out ahead to experience in my fifties what even the healthiest Boomers are going to experience in their sixties seventies or eighties This surprisingly cheerful book is at once a fresh assessment of a generation and a frequently funny account of one man s journey toward the finish line The least misfortune can do to make up for itself is to be interesting he writes Parkinson s disease has fulfilled that obligation
