Cost Accounting Jesse T. Barfield, Cecily A. Raiborn, Michael R. Kinney, 2001 This text has a real world focus and is replete with discussions of real companies It presents opening and closing vignettes of featured actual companies that relate to the topical coverage of each chapter and numerous notes discussing current business issues involving real companies related to the particular subjects being discussed within the chapter College Accounting James A. Heintz, Robert W.
Parry, 2001-02-08 This text presents concepts simply while ensuring the best most accurate coverage College Accounting is designed to make accounting understandable to virtually everyone without sacrificing substance and technical correctness A step by step straightforward approach helps students build practical accounting skills that are needed when entering the world of work The text presents simple topics first and gradually builds to more advanced topics so learners are not overwhelmed The narrative approach covers a simpler example of a service business before moving to a merchandising business and finally a manufacturing environment Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress.

Financial Accounting Michael Chris Knapp, 1998 Weaving a decision making theme throughout its 15 chapters and three modules this financial accounting text is reinforced by continual use of a five point organizational scheme The structure of the book focuses the student's attention on how and why accounting data are needed and used by decision makers There is an additional emphasis throughout on the necessity of accurate and reliable internal controls a focus on ethical issues relative to accounting data and the integration of international accounting issues
