South Pacific Musical Script:

South Pacific Jim Lovensheimer, 2010-08-26 Rodgers and Hammerstein's Tony and Pulitzer Prize winning musical South Pacific has remained a mainstay of the American musical theater since it opened in 1949 and its powerful message about racial intolerance continues to resonate with twenty first century audiences Drawing on extensive research in the Rodgers and the Hammerstein papers including Hammerstein's personal notes on James A Michener's Tales of the South Pacific Jim Lovensheimer offers a fascinating reading of South Pacific that explores the show's complex messages and demonstrates how the presentation of those messages changed throughout the creative process Indeed the author shows how Rodgers and especially Hammerstein continually refined and softened the theme of racial intolerance until it was more acceptable to mainstream Broadway audiences Likewise Lovensheimer describes the treatment of gender and colonialism in the musical tracing how it both reflected and challenged early Cold War Era American norms The book also offers valuable background to the writing of South Pacific exploring the earlier careers of both Rodgers and Hammerstein showing how they frequently explored serious social issues in their other works and discussing their involvement in the political movements of their day such as Hammerstein's founding membership in the Hollywood Anti Nazi League Finally the book features many wonderful appendices including two that compare the original draft and final form of the classic songs I'm Gonna Wash That Man Right Out a My Hair and I'm In Love With a Wonderful Guy Thoroughly researched and compellingly written this superb book offers a rich intriguing portrait of a Broadway masterpiece and the era in which it was created

So You Want to Be a Scriptwriter and Make a Million Dollars Irving Elman, 2000 This book was written to fill a need when I started teaching script writing at Santa Monica College and my students asked me to name a book on the subject I could recommend After voluminous reading I could find nothing which was completely satisfactory Most of it seemed to have been written by people who had never written professionally for films and or television and thus had no first hand knowledge of it from personal experience The books were written from hearsay and observation like trying to learn how to swim by standing at the edge of a pool and watching others do it without ever getting into the water yourself Or trying to fly by flapping your arms like a bird It doesn't work They have no hands on or wings on concept of how commercially produceable scripts are actually put together and then marketed and are of no real practical help to the beginning writer or anyone else who's interested Only a swimmer or a bird or a writer who has made his living at it really knows how his special trick is done and can pass it on to others And so here it is Enjoy while you learn Because if writing isn't fun it's no way to make a living Rob banks instead but try not to get caught
