Evaluating Systems for Multilingual and Multimodal Information Access Thomas Deselaers, Nicola Ferro, Julio Gonzalo, Mikko Kurimo, Thomas Mandl, Vivien Petras, 2009-09-29 The ninth campaign of the Cross Language Evaluation Forum CLEF for European languages was held from January to September 2008 There were seven main evaluation tracks in CLEF 2008 plus two pilot tasks The aim as usual was to test the performance of a wide range of multilingual information access MLIA systems or system components This year

100 groups mainly but not only from academia participated in the campaign. Most of the groups were from Europe but there was also a good contingent from North America and Asia plus a few participants from South America and Africa. Full details regarding the design of the tracks, the methodologies used for evaluation and the results obtained by the participants can be found in the different sections of these proceedings. The results of the CLEF 2008 campaign were presented at a two and a half day workshop held in Aarhus, Denmark, September 17-19 and attended by 150 researchers and system developers. The annual workshop held in conjunction with the European Conference on Digital Libraries plays an important role by providing the opportunity for all the groups that have participated in the evaluation campaign to get together, comparing approaches and exchanging ideas. The schedule of the workshop was divided between plenary track overviews and parallel poster and breakout sessions presenting this year's experiments and discussing ideas for the future. There were several invited talks.

Resources in Education, 1998 AP Human Geography 2017-2018 Kelly Swanson, 2017-02-07 Presents a study guide that reviews human geography topics covered on the advanced placement test, offers tips on test-taking strategies and includes full-length practice tests with answers and explanations. Opening the Common Core Carol Corbett Burris, Delia T. Garrity, 2012-03-13 The CCSS open the door to success. Do you wish you could leverage the Common Core State Standards (CCSS) to equip all students, not just high achievers, with the higher-level thinking skills they need? You can, and this book will show you how. The authors helped lead their district, Rockville Centre in Long Island, New York, in closing achievement gaps and increasing the number of students who completed four-year college programs. The results of their efforts show a remarkable increase in both excellence and equity in English language arts, math, and science. This book outlines the authors' research-based ACES framework for instructional improvement to help achieve similar results: Acceleration rather than remediation, Critical thinking, Equity in education for all students. Support Educators will find practical strategies that are applied and developed in model lessons linked to the CCSS and KSUS Knowledge and Skills for University Success standards. Understanding why we need to prepare all children to be college and career ready is easy. Making it happen is not. Learn from those who have succeeded and your students will reap the rewards. Religion in Sociological Perspective David Yamane, Keith A. Roberts, Jonas M. Hart, 2025-08-22 Religion in Sociological Perspective, Eighth Edition, introduces the systems of meaning, structure, and belonging that make up the complex social phenomena we know as religion. The author team uses an active learning approach to illustrate the central theories and methods of research in the sociology of religion and show students how to apply these analytical tools to new groups they encounter. Primary Health Care: People, Practice, Place Valorie A. Crooks, Gavin J. Andrews, 2016-04-08 Health care is constantly undergoing change and refinement, resulting from the adoption of new practices and technologies, the changing nature of societies and populations, and also shifts in the very places from which care is delivered. Primary Health Care: People, Practice, Place draws together significant contributions from established experts across a variety of disciplines to focus on such changes in primary health care, not only because it is the most basic and integral form of health service delivery but also because it is an area to which geographers have made significant contributions and to which other scholars have engaged in thinking geographically about its core concepts and issues Including perspectives from both consumers and producers it moves beyond geographical accounts of the context of health service provision through its explicit focus on the practice of primary health care With arguments well supported by empirical research this book will appeal not only to scholars across a range of social and health sciences but also to professionals involved in health services Figurative Thinking and Foreign Language Learning J. Littlemore, Graham D. Low, 2006-04-12 Many vocabulary items that foreign language learners encounter involve figurative extensions of meaning To understand figurative speech learners often need to employ figurative thinking This book examines figurative thinking considers its contribution to language ability and explores the implications for language teaching and learning
