

Lesson learned

There comes a time in everyone's life when bad things happen that we wish had never occurred. This experience, that result in being punished or even disciplined by our parents, guardian, police or even by a teachers, often leads us to learn an important life lessons. Soon, we realize that we did something we know we should not have done. Growing up, I was always the kid who had to be punished; not because I was bad, but by doing and saying stupid things, and by keeping the wrong set of friend, who often got me into trouble.

My punishments include, being grounded from my phone, television ,and everything else that I would consider fun. When I would get into trouble, often I was deadlines by my parent, but getting deadlines by Mrs.. White - who was my fifth grade teacher at All Mercy middle school- was very different and scary. I was slating in Mrs. White's math class, and she began to pass out our Math test scores. I was, and still, am inefficient in my math skill. As she passed the tests back, my anxious eyes searched the bright colored room, was expecting the worst. E colorful posters were not enough to distract me from my inevitable bad grade, and the blue walls were hardly calming. The garden I received was very low. A depressing, bold looking in bright red ink, was burned at the top of the paper close to where my name was written. I got mad at myself, and I let out an exasperated sigh that just happen to include the "F -word" . Everybody in the class, including Mrs.. White, turned toward me with looks of shock and astonishment. Mrs.. White then shouted my name and said; "Tamari, get in my office owe I" I was in shock at myself that I had lousily sighed this obscenity.

I was so scare to go to Mrs.. White's office. In a angry tone of voice, she shouted again, "Tamari, in my office now! " I was so terrified to face her, because I and never heard Mrs.. White sound so angry before. She shouted one last time, "Tamari, in my office, right now! " I walked slowly, slower than a turtle, into her office. I could feel the entire class staring at me as I walked as slow as possible. Finally, when I reached Mrs.. White's office, she had me sit down in front of her desk. She said, " You know saying the F word was unacceptable. I nodded my head. That day after lunch, Mrs.. White had me apologize in front of the entire class for using foul language, and she had me sit in the naughty corner of the class by myself for four days. I was happy that Ms. While did not called my parents because I knew my punishment would have been much worse. Luckily, my parents never actually found out that I used the F word at school. That day I clearly learned that there are consequent for my actions, and I have to be more careful with the things I say.

Word can get you into trouble, but not just in the classroom, at work, and their power to hurt others . Because word are very power, you can hurt
