Alexander, 2015-09-02 On the Wing is the first book to take a comprehensive look at the evolution of flight in all four groups of powered flyers insects pterosaurs birds and bats David Alexander describes and evaluates both traditional and modern wing origin theories in light of new fossil and genetic evidence Wings of the Gods Peter Gardella, Laurence Krute, 2024 Wings of the Gods surveys the many roles that birds have played in the development of religions from legends rituals costumes wars and spiritual disciplines to the current ecological crisis Peter Petra Gardella and Laurence Krute both scholars and birdwatchers transcend a narrow focus on humanity to explore the agency of birds in world history Empire of Song Dafni Tragaki, 2013-07-11 The Eurovision Song Contest ESC is more than a musical event that ostensibly unites European people through music It is a spectacle a performative event that allegorically represents the idea of Europe Since its beginning in the Cold War era the contest has functioned as a symbolic realm for the performance of European selves and the negotiation of European identities Through the ESC Europe is experienced felt and imagined in singing and dancing as the interplay of tropes of being local and or European is enacted In Empire of Song Europe and Nation in the Eurovision Song Contest contributors interpret the ESC as a musical mediascape and mega event that has variously performed and performs the changing visions of the European project Through the study of the cultural politics of the ESC contributors discuss the ways in which music operates as a dynamic nexus for making national identities and European sensibilities generating processes of assimilation or integration and defining the celebrated notion of the European citizen in a global context Scholars in the volume also explore the ways otherness and difference are produced spectacularized challenged or even neglected in the televised musical realities of the ESC For the contributing authors song serves as a site for constituting Europe and the nation on and offstage History and politics as well as the constant production of European subjectivities are sounded in song The Eurovision song is a shifting realm where old and new states imagine their pasts question their presents and envision ideal futures in the New Europe Essays in Empire of Song adopt theoretical and epistemological orientations in their exploration of popular music within ethnomusicology and critical musicology questioning the idea of Europe and the nation through and in music at a time when the European self appears more fragmented if not entirely shattered Bringing together ethnomusicology music studies history social anthropology feminist theory linguistics media ethnography postcolonial theory comparative literature and philosophy Empire of Song will interest students and scholars in a vast array of disciplines

Beautiful Circuits Mark Goble, 2010-11-02 Considering texts by Henry James Gertrude Stein James Weldon Johnson F Scott Fitzgerald Ralph Ellison Richard Wright James Agee and William Carlos Williams alongside film painting music and popular culture Mark Goble explores the development of American modernism as it was shaped by its response to technology and an attempt to change how literature itself could communicate Goble's original readings reinterpret the aesthetics of modernism in the early twentieth century when new modes of communication made the experience of technology an occasion for profound experimentation and reflection He follows the assimilation of such old media technologies as the telegraph telephone and phonograph and their role in inspiring fantasies of connection which informed a commitment to the materiality of artistic mediums Describing how relationships made possible by technology became more powerfully experienced with technology Goble explores a modernist fetish for media that shows no signs of abating The mediated life puts technology into communication with a series of shifts in how Americans conceive the mechanics and meanings of their connections to one another and therefore to the world and to their own modernity
