Winnetou Band German Edition:

(Un)Following in Winnetou's Footsteps Sanja Runtić, Jana Marešová, Klára Kolinská, 2024-01-03 This book examines the ways in which North American Indigenous identity has been re imagined represented and negotiated in German Croatian Italian Polish and Czech culture Employing a cross disciplinary and comparative approach and drawing on a range of media from literature comics and film to photography painting and the performative arts across different historical and cultural backgrounds it aims to both contribute innovative scholarship on Indigenous studies in Europe and open a new avenue in the field by focusing on Central European settings that have received little or no critical attention to date The book s novelty also comes from its focus on the latest developments in the field including the Ravensburger Winnetou controversy which swept across Europe in 2022 echoing the 2017 Canadian debate over Indigenous appropriation and free speech It seeks to provide a sound reference and lay the groundwork for future scholarship by opening up a conversation on how Indigenous identities have been portrayed in Central European literature and media texts To this end it not only addresses generalized expectations about North American Indigenous people underlying Central European public discourse and imagination but also questions whether and to what extent some of the ingrained stereotypical views and practices such as hobbyism have been challenged in the face of Indigenous resurgence rapidly changing media and information sharing realities and global cultural shifts The closing interview with M tis playwright actor and director Bruce Sinclair underscores one of the book s key goals to spark an informed cross cultural dialogue that will reveal the mechanisms of as well as the contradictions and tensions inherent in the politics of Indigenous representation in Central European cultural industries and encourage Central Europeans to confront their own cultural assumptions and attitudes

Translation and Translating in German Studies John L. Plews, Diana Spokiene, 2016-11-08 Translation and Translating in German Studies is a collection of essays in honour of Professor Raleigh Whiting a well loved scholar of German literature an inspiring teacher and an exceptional editor and translator Its twenty chapters written by Canadian and international experts explore new perspectives on translation and German studies as they inform processes of identity formation gendered representations visual and textual mediations and teaching and learning practices Translation as a product and translating as a process function both as analytical categories and as objects of analysis in literature film dance architecture history second language education and study abroad experiences The volume arches from theory and genres more traditionally associated with translation i e literature philosophy to new media dance film and experiential education and identifies pressing issues and themes that are increasingly discussed and examined in the context of translation This study will be invaluable to university and college faculty working in the disciplines in German studies as well as in translation cultural studies and second language education Its combination of theoretical and practical explorations will allow readers to view cultural texts anew and invite educators to revisit long forgotten or banished practices such as translation in auto biographical writing and in the German language classroom Winnetou Karl May, David Koblick, 1999 More copies of this German tale of the American West have been printed than any other novel in German publishing history This lively English translation of the daring adventures of Old Shatterhand and the Apache Chief Winnetou puts the best known work by Karl May 1842 1912 into the hands of an American audience for the first time in paperback A Companion to German Cinema Terri Ginsberg, Andrea Mensch, 2011-11-28 A Companion to German Cinema A Companion to German Cinema regards the shifting terrain of German filmmaking and film studies against their larger social contexts with twenty two newly commissioned essays by well established and younger scholars in the field While several of these focus on classic topics such as Weimar cinema Fifties cinema New German Cinema and its legacy and Holocaust film the collection is distinguished by its focus on new developments and the innovative light they may shed on earlier practices A Companion to German Cinema includes essays on Berlin Film Neue Heimat Film New Comedy post Wall documentaries the post Wende RAF genre and Rabenmutter imagery as well as on the persistently overlooked and under theorized Indianerfilme post AIDS documentaries sexploitation films and new multicultural and transnational films produced in Germany under the auspices of the European Union Organized into three movements representing the significance of these developments for their aesthetic theorization A Companion to German Cinema challenges its readers to address critical gaps in the field with the aim of opening it further onto new terrains of intellectual engagement Evolution and Popular Narrative ,2019-06-07 The contributors to this volume share the assumption that popular narrative when viewed with an evolutionary lens offers an incisive index into human nature In theory narrative art could take a near infinity of possible forms In actual practice however particular motifs plot patterns stereotypical figures and artistic devices persistently resurface indicating specific predilections frequently at odds with our actual living conditions Our studies explore various media and genres to gauge the impact of our evolutionary inheritance in interdependence with the respective cultural environments on our aesthetic appreciation As they suggest research into mass culture is not only indispensable for evolutionary criticism but may also contribute to our understanding of prehistoric selection pressures that still influence modern preferences in popular narrative Contributions by David Andrews James Carney Mathias Clasen Brett Cooke Tam s D vid Barrett Tom Dolack Kathryn Duncan Isabel Behncke Izquierdo Joe Keener Alex C Parrish Todd K Platts Anna Rotkirch Judith P Saunders Michelle Scalise Sugiyama Dirk Vanderbeke and Sophia Wege Americana Knut Holtsträter, Sascha Pöhlmann, 2024 The essay collection Americana poses the basic question of how American music can be described and analyzed as such as American music Situated at the intersection between musicology and American Studies the essays focus on the categories of aesthetics authenticity and performance in order to show how popular music is made American from Alaskan hip hop to German Schlager from Creedence Clearwater Revival to film scores from popular opera to U2 from the Rolling Stones to country rap and from Steve Earle to the Trans Chorus of Los Angeles *Winnetou. The Intersections of Whiteness Evangelia Kindinger, Mark Schmitt, 2019-01-04 Trumpism and the racially implied Islamophobia of the travel ban Brexit and the yearning for Britain's past imperial grandeur Black Lives Matter the public backlash against Merkel's refugee policies in Germany These seemingly national responses to the changing demographics in a multitude of Western nations need to be understood as effects of a global transnational crisis of whiteness The Intersections of Whiteness brings together scholars from different disciplines to shed light on these manifestations in the United States the United Kingdom South Africa and Germany Applying methodology stemming from critical race theory's investment in intersectionality the contributions of this edited collection focus on specific intersections of whiteness with gender class space affect and nationality Offering valuable insights into the contours of whiteness and its instrumentalisation across different nations societies and cultures this incisive volume creates transnational dialogue and will appeal to students and researchers interested in fields such as critical whiteness and race studies gender studies cultural studies and social policy Billboard ,1995-11-18 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world s premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends

Performativity - Life, Stage, Screen A. Dana Weber ,Margaret E. Wright-Cleveland,2018 Performativity refers to the emergent ambiguous and unexpected dimensions of any performance in the social political and artistic arena The volume presents case studies of performativity in linguistic translation the city as stage of political performances the theatricality of courtrooms and documentary film contemporary theatre s political inheritance and the historically punctured fabric of festival time Its contributions to performance and theatre studies sociology and folklore and German studies reflect this concept in a transdisciplinary and transatlantic dialogue 3,096 Days in Captivity Natascha Kampusch,2011-09-06 On March 2 1998 ten year old Natascha Kampusch was kidnapped and found herself locked in a house that would be her home for the next eight years She was starved beaten treated as a slave and forced to work for her deranged captor But she never forgot who she was and she never gave up hope of returning to the world This is her story Krautrock Ulrich Adelt,2016-09-15 Krautrock is a catch all term for the music of various white German rock groups of the 1970s that blended influences of African American and Anglo American music with the experimental and electronic music of European composers Groups such as Can Popol Vuh Faust and Tangerine Dream arose out of the German student movement of 1968 and connected leftist political activism with experimental rock music and later electronic sounds Since the 1970s American and British popular genres such as indie post rock techno and hip hop have drawn heavily on krautrock ironically reversing a flow of influence krautrock originally set out to disrupt Among other topics individual chapters of the book focus on the redefinition of German identity in the music of Kraftwerk Can and Neu on community and conflict in the music of Amon D l Faust and Ton Steine Scherben on cosmic music and New Age and on Donna Summer s and David Bowie s connections to Germany Rather than providing a purely musicological or historical account Krautrock discusses the music as being constructed through performance and articulated through various forms of expressive culture including communal living spirituality and sound A New History of German Cinema Jennifer M. Kapczynski,Michael David Richardson,2012 A dynamic event centered exploration of the hundred year history of German language film This dynamic event centered anthology offers a new understanding of the hundred year history of German language film from the earliest days of the Kintopp to contemporary productions like The Lives of Others Each of the more than eighty essays takes a key date as its starting point and explores its significance for German film history pursuing its relationship with its social political and aesthetic moment While the essays offer ample temporal and topical spread this book emphasizes the juxtaposition of famous and unknown stories granting attention to a wide range of cinematic events Brief section introductions provide a larger historical and film historical framework that illuminates the essays within it offering both scholars and the general reader a setting for the individual texts and figures under investigation Cross references to other essays in the book are included at the close of each entry encouraging readers not only to pursue familiar trajectories in the development of German film but also to trace particular figures and motifs across genres and historical periods Together the contributions offer a new view of the multiple intersecting narratives that make up German language cinema The constellation that is thus established challenges unidirectional narratives of German film history and charts new ways of thinking about film historiography more broadly Jennifer Kapczynski is Associate Professor of German at Washington University St Louis and Michael Richardson is Associate Professor of German at Ithaca College

Coming Home to the Third Reich Grant W. Grams, 2021-09-14 During the 1930s Germany's industrialization rearmament and economic plans taxed the existing manpower forcing the country to explore new ways of acquiring Aryan German labor Eventually the Third Reich implemented a return migration program which used various recruitment strategies to entice Germans from Canada and the United States to migrate home It initially used the Atlantic Ocean to transport German speakers but after the outbreak of World War II German civilians were brought from the Americas to East Asia and then to Germany via the Trans Siberian Railway through the Soviet Union Germany's attack on the Soviet Union in June 1941 ended this overland route but some Germans were moved on Nazi ships from East Asia to the Third Reich until the end of 1942 This book investigates why Germans who had already established themselves in overseas countries chose to migrate back to an oppressive and authoritarian country It sheds light on some aspects of the Third Reich's administration goals and achievements associated with return migration while also telling the individual stories of returnees

The Encyclopedia of Western Movies Phil Hardy, 1985 Cold War Rivalry and the Perception of the American West P. Goral, 2014-03-07 This book demonstrates how the two adversaries of the Cold War West Germany and East Germany endeavored to create two distinct and unique German identities In their endeavor to claim legitimacy the German cinematic representation of the American West became an important cultural weapon of mass dissemination during the Cold War

The Western Phil Hardy, 1983 New Wests and Post-Wests Paul S. Varner, 2013-10-03 The writers of these chapters are often working with changing assumptions about literary and media interpretations of an American West Here we see critical approaches to a West that never was a West of myth so enduring that the myth dominates nearly all artistic representation about this place that never was In this collection we see critical approaches to a New West a West that is a state of mind not a geographical place but a mythic space with no boundaries and no political inevitabilities These New Western studies accept the idea of a West that includes Canada Mexico Alaska and in the case of the US every geographic and historical point west of the historic founding settlements The West we study today is a post West an idea of the West past the traditional views of an old West dominated by white US nationalism and gendered as uncompromisingly masculine The idea itself of a single West no longer holds validity We now understand that all renderings of the West are renderings of multiple Wests Wests constructed by American nationalists Wests constructed by EuroAmerican writers and filmmakers Wests constructed by native peoples or Wests constructed outside the geographical boundaries of the US This collection presents an eclectic array of new scholarship ranging freely over the New Wests and Post Wests dealing with issues such as the literature of a 1950s California West eco crime genre fiction the West of Edward Dorn and the Beat Movement images of prostitution in California Gold Rush literature European perspectives on film representations of the first peoples the six shooter and the American West German Westerns and Italian Westerns The Authentic Death of Hendry Jones by Charles Neider and films such as The Treasure of Sierra Madre Into the Wild There Will Be Blood and The Last Picture Show A unique aspect of this collection is the range of writers interpreting the American West in film and literature besides those writing from within the United States five of the writers provide international perspectives from the United Kingdom and the Universities of Tunis Vienna and Rome Each chapter includes a review of scholarship on its subject and an extended bibliography for further research
