

A large, reddish-pink full moon dominates the center of the image, set against a dark, starry background. The moon's surface is detailed with various craters and maria, giving it a textured appearance. The overall color palette is dominated by the deep reds and pinks of the moon and the blacks and greys of the space background.

The final of three volumes. Stars, Studios, and the Musical Theatre Screen Adaptation. An Oxford Handbook traces how stardom and technology has affected the evolution of the genre of the stage-to-screen musical. Many chapters examine specific screen adaptations in depth, with case studies on the screen versions of Broadway favorites Carousel and Brigadoon, while others deal with broad issues such as how music rights affected how studios approached screen adaptations. Together, the chapters incite lively debates about the process of adapting Broadway for the big screen and provide models for future studies.
