Handbook of Local Government Fiscal Health Helisse Levine, Jonathan B. Justice, Eric Anthony Scorsone, 2012 Fiscal health of local governments and municipalities has remained an important issue since the crises of the 1970s in places like New York Philadelphia and Cleveland More recently the bankruptcy of Orange County California raised the possibility of a different type of financial failure than earlier ones The beginning of the 21st century has witnessed two major economic bubbles including the dotcom and housing bubbles These economic cycles combined with increasing health care pension and other structural costs continue to challenge the fiscal viability of many jurisdictions In particular the economic and financial crisis of 2007 2008 is likely to result in potentially serious fiscal challenges for local jurisdictions

A Structural Model of the U.S. Government Securities Market V. Vance Roley, 2018-03-05 Originally published in 1979 This study focuses primarily on the development of a structural model for the U S Government securities market ie the specification and estimation of the demands for disaggregated maturity classes of U S Government securities by the individual investor groups participating in the market A particularly important issue addressed involves the extent of the substitution relationship among different maturity classes of U S Government securities
