A Vision of Love Melanie Catley,1985 Love Seeking Understanding Michael Altenburger, Jacob W. Wood,2024-06

As Catholic theology emerged from the crisis of modernity theologians turned to both patristic and medieval sources to recover lost wisdom from the theological tradition and adapt it to the challenges of an age that separated reason from faith the practice of theology from the spiritual life In time Thomas Aquinas and Hans Urs von Balthasar became the patrons of two very different approaches to this challenge St Thomas Aquinas offering contemporary theologians an approach rooted in the patristic medieval Latin synthesis of Augustine and Aristotle that also draws on the East and von Balthasar offering contemporary theologians a patristic modern approach rooted in the Eastern theological synthesis of Maximus the Confessor and Erich Przywara that also draws on the West Although Aquinas and Balthasar together with their contemporary followers sought to unite reason and faith theology and prayer contemporary Thomists and Balthasarians have tended to diverge widely from one another often with a polemical spirit How should one understand the theological genius of St Thomas Aquinas and Hans Urs von Balthasar today How can two of the greatest theologians in the Catholic tradition be brought together in more fruitful and peaceful dialogue This edited volume comprises contributions from a range of scholars who elucidate the depth and breadth of two of the most prominent figures of the Catholic tradition today A scholar from each school of thought contributes an essay on a particular theme Metaphysics Trinity Revelation Christology Anthropology Evil and Eschatology By presenting the two essays side by side this volume provides the contemporary reader with an opportunity to better engage both thinkers and understand disagreements and areas for constructive movement forward The tone of the volume is intentionally irenic seeking points of constructive dialogue and opening new pathways to the renewal of sapiential theology through a fruitful synthesis of Thomistic and Balthasarian thought

The Vision of Kwannon Sama Bernard Lennox Broughton,1929 A Metaphysics of Love George Pattison,2021

As the third part of a philosophy of Christian life A Metaphysics of Love builds on a view of Christian life as shaped by the dynamic of call response and promise It argues that love is the ultimate content of this dynamic and considers how far this claim extends Taking its bearings from Dante s vision of divine love as the power that moves the sun and other stars this study explores the requirement that love is both human and cosmic uniting being and beings Cognizant of much recent philosophy s desire to overcome or move beyond a metaphysics of being it examines some of the formal structures that make love possible including language time social being forgiveness and ultimacy Following on from the earlier volumes extensive use is made of the idea of the poetic as the eminent mode of Christian witness contextualized within the prose of everyday life Heidegger provides fundamental philosophical orientation whilst key features of love are brought to the fore through dialogue with Kierkegaard Dante and Dostoevsky are frequent points of reference in addition to a range of literary and religious sources including the Scottish poet Edwin Muir Leading scholar George Pattison concludes that the phenomenon of love requires us to articulate a metaphysics that involves both being and nothingness thereby taking a critical position vis vis both classical theism and existential atheism

Rogers, Jr.,2009-05-11 Beginning with the Church Fathers and moving right through to the present day The Holy Spirit offers a theologically informed international collection of the most important texts relating to Christians understanding of the Holy Spirit A new volume of texts and readings offering a chronologically organized selection of the most important and interesting writings on the Holy Spirit Considers how the Holy Spirit has always been an integral part of both Christian belief and systematic theology from the Church Fathers through to the present day Each set of readings is prefaced by an introduction from the editor drawing out the main themes and important historical points and linking the readings to what has gone before Tackles the disagreements over the role of the Holy Spirit within the Trinity and how it was a contributing factor in the split between the Western and Eastern Church Opens with a newly commissioned essay describing the importance of the Holy Spirit in the theology of the last one hundred years and in particular in relation to the revival of Trinitarian theology Strategic Planning from God's Perspective THE VISION Arnold Farquharson,2008-04 This story takes you into the heart of God and gives you an insight to his eternal purpose for man This volume begins when there was only God He cannot sit stand or move He is the ALL IN ALL He is the self sustaining one The story continues with the creation of Immortal Man The Eternities The Kingdom Of God The Beginning Era Time The Kingdom of Heaven Or The Parallel Visable Universe Man s Physical Body Dear reader welcome to a glimpse of Strategic Planning from God s Perspective You are invited to journey back to the eon when Elohim existed alone and travel forward through the eternities to The Time Dispensation The story continues and ends when God judges man s sin and executes all living beings animals and creatures by flood Springfield City Library Bulletin Springfield City Library Association (Springfield, Mass.),1905 Concurrence ,1969 Power, Love and Evil Wayne Cristaudo,2008-01-01 Love and evil are real they are substances of force fields which contain us as constituent parts Of all the powers of life they are the two most pregnant with meaning hence the most generative of what is specifically human Love and evil stand in the closest relationship to each other evil is both what destroys love and what forces more love out of us it is as Augustine astutely grasped privative requiring something to negate but it is also born out of misdirected love Breaking with na ve realist and post modern dogmas about the nature of the real this book provides the basis for a philosophy of generative action as it draws upon examples from philosophy literature religion and popular culture While this book has a sympathetic ear for ancient and traditional narratives about the meaning of life it offers a philosophy appropriate for our times and our crises It is particularly directed at readers who are seeking for new ways to think about our world and self making and who are as dissatisfied with post Nietzschean and post Marxian 20th century social theory as they are by more traditional philosophical and naturalistic accounts of human being Thinking About Love Diane Enns, Antonio Calcagno,2015-11-10 Does love command an ineffability that remains inaccessible to the philosopher Thinking About Love considers the nature and experience of love through the writing of well known Continental philosophers such as Hannah Arendt Simone de Beauvoir Jacques Derrida and Maurice Merleau Ponty Evolving forms of social organization rapid developments in the field of psychology and novel variations on relationships demand new approaches to and ways of talking about love Rather than offering prescriptive claims this volume explores how one might think about the concept philosophically without attempting to resolve or alleviate its ambiguities paradoxes and limitations The essays focus on the contradictions and limits of love manifested in such phenomena as trust abuse grief death violence politics and desire An erudite examination of the many facets of love this book fills a lacuna in the philosophy of this richly complicated topic Along with the editors the contributors are Sophie Bourgault John Caruana Christina M Gschwandtner Marguerite La Caze Alphonso Lingis Christian Lotz Todd May Dawne McCance Dorothea Olkowski Felix Murchadha Fiona Utley and M lanie Walton

The Form of Love James Kuzner, 2021-08-03 Can poetry articulate something about love that philosophy cannot The Form of Love argues that it can In close readings of seven metaphysical poems the book shows how poets of the early modern period and beyond use poetic form to turn philosophy to other ends in order not to represent the truth about love but to create a virtual experience of love in all its guises The Form of Love shows how verse creates love that can't exist without poetry's specific affordances and how poems can in their impossibility prompt love's radical re-imagining Like the philosophies on which they draw metaphysical poems imagine love as an intense form of non-sovereignty of giving up control They even imagine love as a liberating bondage to a friend a beloved a saint a God or a garden Yet these poems create strange striking versions of such love made in rather than through the devices structures and forces where love appears Tracing how poems think Kuzner argues requires an intimate form of reading close even too close attention to and thinking with the text Showing how poetry thinks of love otherwise than other fields the book reveals how poetry and philosophy can nevertheless enter into a relation that is itself like love
