Voices of Weavers Jella Fink,2020 The lives of weavers and their textile creations form the central subject in this monograph It explores an understudied field of material culture studies in contemporary Myanmar Textile cultures craftsmanship and national identity are the core topoi of this work Embedded in a century of shifting political and economic systems the documented weaving cultures enhance our understanding of transformation processes on the local level This book brings together current impulses of material culture studies and observations based on extensive ethnographic fieldwork data Crafting Sustainability in Luxury Textiles for a Zero-Waste Future Sadhna,Rajesh Kumar,E Mokanaasri,2025-05-31 In an era where environmental consciousness is rapidly becoming a priority the luxury textile industry stands at a crucial crossroads As consumers increasingly demand products that not only offer elegance and opulence but also align with sustainable values luxury brands are facing a paradigm shift in their approach This shift towards sustainability is not merely a trend but a fundamental reevaluation of the industry s practices driven by a growing awareness of the environmental impact of textile manufacturing and consumption This contributed volume explores this transformative journey investigating how luxury and sustainability can harmoniously coexist to shape a future where opulence is synonymous with environmental stewardship The book examines the intricate relationship between luxury textiles and sustainability offering insights analyses and practical solutions for crafting a zero waste future in the high end fashion industry The book serves as a valuable resource for scholars practitioners and policymakers seeking to navigate the complexities of sustainable textile production while maintaining the essence of luxury and craftsmanship Through a collaborative effort the work presented here sets the stage for a future where luxury textiles captivate the senses and inspire a profound sense of environmental responsibility paving the way toward a zero waste future in high end fashion Basics Fashion Design 02: Textiles and Fashion Jenny Udale,2008-08-19 All fashion designers must have an understanding of fabrics and what their properties are to allow them to choose the right fabric for their designs Basics Fashion Design 02 Textiles and Fashion by Jenny Udale is a guide to the use of textiles within fashion design The book examines the entire process of creating and using fashion textiles It discusses the practical processes involved including information on fibre production dyeing and finishing as well as construction techniques such as weaving and knitting Various surface treatments are explored as well as the way in which colour and trend influences fashion and textiles The book also includes a section in which fashion and textile designers discuss their production processes and how they use textiles in their work This title is suitable for first year students of fashion design textile and other fashion related subjects as well as professional creatives and those with an interest in the process of fashion design from concept to execution seeking to develop and improve their design skills

Texts and Textiles Diana Mary Eva Thomas,2017-03-07 This study shows how fiction that makes use of textiles as an essential element utilizes synaesthetic writing and synaesthetic metaphor to create an affective link to and response in the reader These links and responses are examined using affect theory from Silvan Tomkins and Brian Massumi and work on synaesthesia by Richard Cytowic Lawrence Marks and V S Ramachandran among others Synaesthetic writing including synaesthetic metaphors has been explored in poetry since the 1920s and more recently in fiction but these studies have been general in nature By narrowing the field of investigation to those novels that specifically employ three types of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery the book isolates how these textiles are used in fiction The combination of synaesthesia memory metaphor and particularly synaesthetic metaphor in fiction with textiles in the text of the case studies selected shows how these are used to create affect in readers enhancing their engagement in the story The work is framed within the context of the history of textile production and the use of textiles in fiction internationally but concentrates on Australian authors who have used textiles in their writing The decision to focus on Australian authors was taken in light of the quality and depth of the writing of textile fiction produced in Australia between 1980 and 2005 in the three categories of hand crafted textiles quilt making knitting and embroidery The texts chosen for intensive study are Kate Grenville s The Idea of Perfection 1999 quilting Marele Day s Lambs of God 1997 knitting and Anne Bartlett s Knitting 2005 knitting Jessica Anderson s Tirra Lirra by the River 1978 embroidery and Marion Halligan s Spider Cup 1990 embroidery Pattern Sue Bradley,2025-07-03 This is a book for hand knitters who love pattern colour and inspiration and have a desire to create their own beautiful designs The 28 knitting patterns for garments and accessories are inspired by textiles and artefacts from all over the world The garment shapes are easy to knit allowing the colour and pattern to take centre stage Each chapter focuses on the culture and textile heritage of a specific country and also features a Pattern Library giving the knitter the opportunity to recreate that chapter's designs using another country's colours motifs or patterns With more than 250 full colour charts across the book there will be a pattern to inspire everyone Surfaces #2 Soft Surfaces Judy A
