Original Sin and the Fall J. B.

Stump, Chad Meister, 2020-06-30 Throughout the church's history Christians have disagreed over many particular questions surrounding humanity's fall. In this Spectrum Multiview book contributors present five views on these questions: Augustinian, Reformed, Moderate Reformed, Wesleyan, Eastern Orthodox, and a Reconceived view, offering both an articulation of their own view and responses to the others. God and Time Gregory E. Ganssle, 2025-10-16 The eternal God has created the universe. And that universe is time-bound. How can we best understand God's relationship with our time-bound universe? For example, does God experience each moment of time in succession, or are all times present to God? How we think of God and time has implications for our understanding of the nature of time, the creation of the universe, God's knowledge of the future, God's interaction with his creation, and the fullness of God's life. In this Spectrum Multiview volume four notable philosophers skillfully take on this difficult topic, all writing from within a Christian framework yet contending for different views. Paul Helm argues that divine eternity should be construed as a state of absolute timelessness. Alan G. Padgett maintains that God's eternity is more plausibly to be understood as relative timelessness. William Lane Craig presents a hybrid view that combines timelessness with omnitemporality. And Nicholas Wolterstorff advocates a doctrine of unqualified divine temporality. Each essay is followed by responses from the other three contributors and a final counter response from the original essayist, making for a lively exchange of ideas. Editor Gregory E. Ganssle provides a helpful introduction to the debate and its significance. Together these five scholars conduct readers on a stimulating and mind-stretching journey into one of the most controversial and challenging areas of theology today. Spectrum Multiview Books offer a range of viewpoints on contested topics within Christianity, giving contributors the opportunity to present their position and also respond to others in this dynamic publishing format. Interpreter: A Journal of Mormon Scripture, Volume 3 (2013) The Interpreter Foundation, 2013-03-04 This is volume 3, 2013, of Interpreter: A Journal of Mormon Scripture by the Interpreter Foundation. Dew Jr., 2017-05-16 The problem of evil has produced many responses and elicited vigorous debate. In this multiview book five philosophical theologians discuss and defend different solutions to this ancient problem: Phillip Cary on the classic view, William Lane Craig on Molinism, William Hasker on open theism, Thomas J. Oord on essential kenosis, and Stephen Wykstra on skeptical theism. Justification James K. Beilby, Paul Rhodes Eddy, 2011-11-10 Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Rom 5:1. When Paul wrote these words he seemed confident he had made himself clear But for centuries the Pauline doctrine of justification has been a classic point of interpretation and debate in Christian exegesis and theology And while in recent decades there have been moments of hopeful convergence among the various traditions of the Western church the fine print often reveals more facets and distinctions than ever before This volume focuses on five views of justification and calls on representative proponents to set forth their case and then respond to each other The five views are Traditional Reformed Michael S Horton Progressive Reformed Michael F Bird New Perspective James D G Dunn Deification or Theosis Veli Matti K rkk inen Roman Catholic Gerald O Collins and Oliver Rafferty In addition editors James Beilby Paul R Eddy and Steven E Enderlein provide an extensive introduction to the issues informing this important debate This distinguished forum of biblical interpreters and theologians offers a lively and informative engagement with the biblical historical and contemporary understandings of justification Justification Five Views is not only a fascinating probe into Paul s meaning it is also a case book in theological method
