Efstathiou,A. N. Lasenby,2006-02-02 General Relativity An Introduction for Physicists provides a clear mathematical introduction to Einstein s theory of general relativity It presents a wide range of applications of the theory concentrating on its physical consequences After reviewing the basic concepts the authors present a clear and intuitive discussion of the mathematical background including the necessary tools of tensor calculus and differential geometry These tools are then used to develop the topic of special relativity and to discuss electromagnetism in Minkowski spacetime Gravitation as spacetime curvature is then introduced and the field equations of general relativity derived After applying the theory to a wide range of physical situations the book concludes with a brief discussion of classical field theory and the derivation of general relativity from a variational principle Written for advanced undergraduate and graduate students this approachable textbook contains over 300 exercises to illuminate and extend the discussion in the text Mathematical Methods for

Physics and Engineering K. F. Riley,M. P. Hobson,S. J. Bence,2006-03-13 The third edition of this highly acclaimed undergraduate textbook is suitable for teaching all the mathematics for an undergraduate course in any of the physical sciences As well as lucid descriptions of all the topics and many worked examples it contains over 800 exercises New stand alone chapters give a systematic account of the special functions of physical science cover an extended range of practical applications of complex variables and give an introduction to quantum operators Further tabulations of relevance in statistics and numerical integration have been added In this edition half of the exercises are provided with hints and answers and in a separate manual available to both students and their teachers complete worked solutions The remaining exercises have no hints answers or worked solutions and can be used for unaided homework full solutions are available to instructors on a password protected web site www.cambridge.org 9780521679718 AAPT Announcer American Association of Physics Teachers,1987
