Early Modern Disputations and Dissertations in an Interdisciplinary and European Context Meelis Friedenthal, Hanspeter Marti, Robert Seidel, 2021-01-25 From the sixteenth through to the eighteenth century printed disputations were the main academic output of universities This genre is especially attractive as it deals with the most significant cultural and scientific innovations of the early modern period such as the printing revolution and the development of new methods in philosophy education and scholarly exchange via personal networks Until recently academic disputations have attracted comparatively little scholarly attention This volume provides for the first time a comprehensive study of the early modern disputation culture both through theoretical discussions and overviews and numerous case studies that analyze particular features of disputations in various European regions

Hometown Hamburg Frank Domurat, 2019-03-22 Through the study of Hamburg handicraft in the late Weimar Republic Hometown Hamburg addresses three intertwined problems in modern German history the role of institutionalized social political and cultural continuity versus contingency in the course of modern German development the impact of conflicting notions of social order on the survival of liberal democracy and the role of corporate politics in the rise of National Socialism It provides a theoretical and analytical framework for reintroducing the notion of historical continuity in the study of modern German history The book also supports the recent challenges to the notion of Hamburg as a liberal economic and political bastion a London on the Elbe in a nation of conservative and authoritarian governmental regimes Hometown Hamburg demonstrates why liberal and socialist Hamburg also remained a hotbed of corporate radicalism and underscores the fact that National Socialism was the only political party that presented a coherent vision of a corporate good society thereby making it attractive to hometown voters across the entire social spectrum in Hamburg and in Germany
